TAKE TWO MILES FROM AUSTRIANS

Geneva, Switzerland, July 14 (via Paris)—The Italians have captured two miles of Austrian trenches in the Carnic Alps, according to a dispatch received today by the Tribune from Villach, an Austrian town on the river, Drave, fifty-two miles northwest of Ljubljana.

The Alpine troops, these advices say, dragged their artillery to the heights near Roskofel, which is situated at an altitude of 6,600 feet.

The Italians also are said to have captured two important ports south of Gorizia.

GERMANS SINK 42 VESSELS IN MONTH

Berlin, July 14. (By Wireless to Sayville)—Included among the items given out today by the Overseas News Agency was the following:

"During the month of June, twenty-nine British, three French, one Belgian and nine Russian merchant men were sunk by German submarines. The total loss of the entente allies by submarine was made."

DECLARE TURKEY IS WEARY OF STRIFE

London, July 14.—For more than a week now the Austro-German offensive in Galicia and Poland has been hanging fire, while the Russians, their center having fallen back in a more advantageous line in the heights to the north of Krasnik, apparently are awaiting the next move of the Teutonic forces.

Fresh ammunition and reinforcements may bring a sudden revival of activity.

The French claim their front in the Argonne forest, after being denied by a violent attack made by the army of Crown Prince Frederick William has been restored, the net result by a costly adventure for the Germans, but the strength of the offensive at this point leads the British press to speculate whether the Argonne or the Woerwe districts will not be selected for a general German offensive rather than the battle grounds of the Flanders. Many reports from that source revive the report that Turkey is weary of the war and anxious for peace.

URGES ORGANIZATION AMONG U. S. FARMERS

Hot Springs, Va., July 14.—In an address on "The Need of Rural Credit" before the National Farm Bureau Convention here today, Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France, urged, as a remedy for whatever trouble exists in rural communities, the establishment of co-operative organizations of farmers. He asserted that one of the successful systems in operation in this country or in Europe owed its existence to the intervention of the government, and that agricultural progress was not keeping pace with expansion of industry and population. A co-operative system to be successful, according to Mr. Herrick, must be built up by the farmers themselves without outside assistance of any sort. Mr. Herrick sketched the development of the West and

OHIO GIRL KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Galion, Ohio, July 14.—Miss Louise Wisterman, 18, was killed and Miss Nora Jenkins, 18, and

If This Guy Tackles You Swat Him And He'll Be Paid For

If he tackles you slay him, or at least severely injure him. Break one of his arms, blacken one eye, cave in a rib, or leave your trademark on him in some manner, and it is a settled fact that you won't be convicted by any court in the country.

He is here—has been here for three or four days, and he probably will be with us for many weeks to come.

He is the gent who accosts you on the street and other places usually when you are wishing that you were somewhere in the Arctic regions and salutes you thusly: "Well, is it hot enough for you today?" Or perhaps he will say, "Gee, but it's hot, isn't it?" It matters not what he says—if it has anything to do with the weather he should be walloped. They are scattered around Portsmouth, just like they are in every other city in the country, and they are likely to meet you any time. Whether they suffer with the heat or not is not known, but it's a certainty that he will in the hereafter.

But that's too long a time off, and anyway, some of us won't be down there to see him sweltering. An earthly cure is essential. Here's one:

Charter a seat on the Equator and send all of them there for the rest of the summer, send them telegrams hourly asking them, "Is it hot enough for you today?"

SWEDEN DELIVERS PROTEST

Berlin, July 14.—(By wireless to Sayville)—A dispatch from Stockholm to the Overseas News Agency says that the Swedish minister in London has delivered to the British government a sharp protest "against the perpetual molestation of Swedish commerce." Norway and Denmark, the message adds, supports the protest.

TWO HURT IN AUTO

Columbus, July 14.—Harry Luby and his sister, Mrs. Lenora M. Dillon of Zanesville, were fatally injured last night while riding in an automobile driven by Dr. W. H. Dillon of Zanesville, on the National pike, 11 miles east of Columbus. The doctor's car collided with the machine of Professor W. A. Knight, of Ohio State University. Luby and his sister were taken to Mt. Carmel hospital, where they were going to visit their mother before an operation. Their injuries are not serious.

NAVAL MAN RESIGNS

Washington, July 14.—Secretary Daniels announced today he had decided to accept the resignation of William B. Ferguson, Jr., naval constructor at the Washington navy yard, who will go with a private shipbuilding company.

Finley Boyd, 20, were badly injured when Boyd's auto turned turtle near here late last night. Miss Wisterman was driving and ran into a ditch while passing another machine. The car turned completely over. Miss Wisterman's chest was crushed by the steering gear and her neck broken. Miss Jenkins suffered two broken legs and a broken arm and Boyd will lose the sight of an eye. Robert Marsh, the fourth occupant of the car was injured.

U. S. TO PROTEST TO GREAT BRITAIN

Washington, July 14.—After conferences with representatives of the leading American meat packers today, state department officials said formal representations would be made to Great Britain for the release of neutral meat cargoes detained by British naval authorities. The character of the representations has not been decided.

NEGRO KILLS THREE; MOB IS AFTER HIM

Macon, Ga., July 14.—A posse of citizens and county officers today shot and killed Peter Jackson, a negro accused of killing three white men near Cochran, Ga.

Macon, Ga., July 14.—Three white men are dead at Cochran, Ga., in Pulaski county, and a posse estimated to number several hundred heavily armed men surrounded the home of a negro farm-hand, who is alleged to have shot and killed the three men. The negro has barricaded himself in his home.

James Jackson, the negro, at last reports, had succeeded in holding off the posse. The dead are: W. S. Hogg, aged 40, night marshal; Lynn Sanders, 40, farm supervisor; and Oscar Lawson, 23, a farm hand.

Jackson, according to the reports, was criticized by Sanders late yesterday for some work he had done and the supervisor is said to have struck the negro. Later, it is alleged, Jackson accosted Sanders, drew a pistol and fired twice, one bullet entering Sanders' heart, killing him almost instantly. Early today Hogg and Lawson went to Jackson's home to arrest him, when it is alleged the negro fired upon them with a shot-gun. They died shortly afterwards.

WHEELING PHYSICIAN IS JAILED AS A SPY

Wheeling, W. Va., July 14.—Dr. A. L. Coyle, a leading physician here, is being held in Toronto, Canada, as a German spy, according to a hastily scribbled postcard received today by Dr. J. M. S. Heath, a personal friend, at Bellaire, Ohio. The message on the card, which bore the Toronto postmark, read: "I am in jail as German spy. Please send credentials from Wheeling." Efforts were at once made to get in communication with Dr. Coyle at Toronto.

JURY SAYS HE IS SANE

NEW YORK, July 14.—Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, was declared sane by a jury in the supreme court after an hours deliberation at 3:45 today.

New York, July 14.—The case of Harry K. Thaw, whose mental status has been up for determination in the supreme court by a jury before Justice Hendrick, went to the jury at 2:53 o'clock today after a brief charge by the court.

Justice Hendrick's charge to the jury lasted hardly more than ten minutes. He reviewed, with great brevity, the legal aspects of the case and told the jurors that they were to consider all the evidence. They were not to concern themselves, the court charged, with any previous acts of Thaw as such.

"The question to be determined," Justice Hendricks said, "is whether Thaw is sane now." The justice did not intimate whether he would be guided wholly by the verdict in determining Thaw's mental condition. The jury is acting in a capacity purely advisory to the court. Justice Hendricks can reverse the verdict, should he deem it contrary to the evidence.

WRITER SAYS HE WILL KILL BOSTON MAYOR

Boston, July 14.—An afternoon paper announces the receipt of an anonymous communication in which the writer, describing himself as a German spy, states that two bombs have been placed in the state house, and another in the custom house tower, and that these will be exploded "about Friday." Also the governor is to be killed, according to the message which was crudely lettered with a lead pencil.

It was turned over to the police who recently examined a similar threat against the custom house without determining whether the writer was a crank or a practical joker.

HEAR MOB PLANS TO LYNCH FRANK

Atlanta, Ga., July 14.—Reports were held in readiness at Macon that a mob would attempt to take Leo M. Frank, serving a life sentence for Mary Phagan's murder, from the state prison farm at Milledgeville and lynch him have not been confirmed by developments. Three companies of state militia

BRYSON RESIGNS

Columbus, July 14.—Charles H. Bryson, member of the state civil service commission today sent his resignation to Governor Willis and it was immediately accepted. The successor may be appointed today.

SOCIALISTS DISMISSED
Columbus, July 14.—Dismissal of E. T. Malloy and Harry Hendel, Socialist members of the Hamilton civil service commission was recommended to Mayor Hinkle of that city today by the state civil service commission which recently investigated Hamilton's civil service conditions on complaint of Thomas H. Dorsey, secretary of the municipal commission.

I dunno just what you may think of it but I call this the swellest weather I've pulled off in a hen's age. It's the acme of perfection to which I've been a'workin' slowly but surely all along. Of course after a bit I may have t' warm things up a little more t' sort o' make up for lost time but for th' present this gentle temperature o' ninety five or thereabouts stays on. Here's for tomorrow.

Ohio—Partly cloudy in South, probably showers in north portion tonight and Thursday.

Kentucky—Generally fair tonight and Thursday. Not much change in temperature.

West Virginia—Fair tonight and Thursday. Not much change in temperature.

London, July 14.—The captain and four members of the crew of the Swedish schooner Daisy were killed when the vessel was sunk by a mine off Flojtan light house, according to a Reuter dispatch from Stockholm.

M'CORMICK MEN HOLD BIG MEETING; KAPS ALSO HAS HIS INNING; OSBORN STICKS

Supporters of Charles McCormick for the Republican nomination for mayor are jubilant over the success of their initial meeting at the office of County Clerk McKelvey Tuesday evening, it being claimed that over a hundred and fifty or more voters were present. Before the meeting ended, a permanent organization had been formed, and preliminary plans perfected for a systematic anti-primary campaign.

A speech by Hon. Henry T. Bannan, in which he came out openly for McCormick, featured the meeting. Mr. Bannan called attention to the fact that there was a strong organization to combat, and that the fight could be won only by systematic effort. He urged all present to get solidly behind McCormick, whom he lauded to the skies as a candidate. With Mr. Bannan in the open for McCormick, it can be said that the strength of the Willis administration is back of him.

Roy McElhenny was named as chairman of the meeting and Harry Gillen secretary. A permanent campaign committee, consisting of Don Clark, Warren Riddleberger, Joseph O'Grain, Walter Bittner, Emerson Kugelmann, Dr. E. T. Perry, Charles Knapp, Roy McElhenny and H. T. Bannan was named. Members of this committee will appoint sub-committees in the different wards and precincts to look after the voters in the respective districts.

Before the meeting adjourned Charles McCormick, in a neat speech, thanked his supporters for the interest they were taking in his candidacy, and assured them of his heartfelt appreciation. He pledged himself, if nominated and elected mayor, to a full performance of the duties of that high office.

At the same time leaders of the "anti-McCormick" faction, composed of the remnant of the former local dominant political organization, held a meeting in the office of Charles B. Hard, in the Masonic Temple. It was stated today by one of the moving spirits of the meeting that 53 men attended and when the conference was over all but three, either by their silence, or openly, concurred in a plan to get behind Kaps.

Judge Osborn, when interviewed today, stated he was still in the race and would stick. Judging from his conversation he does not feel that the assemblage last evening represented the rank and file of the party. He said he could get up a meeting with 150 present or more, all of whom would be for him and favoring the withdrawal of Kaps.

The three who remained steadfast to the cause of Judge Osborn to the last were Judge A. T. Holcomb, Mark A. Crawford and Willard Gustin. They left the meeting stating that they would support him as long as he was a candidate. Charles B. Hard, who has been a strong Osborn man from the start, announced that he would bow to the will of the majority and support Kaps. Other Osborn supporters expressed similar sentiment, it was stated.

Chairman P. W. Young of the county executive committee, who acted as chairman of the meeting, was authorized to name a committee of seven men to confer with Mr. Kaps and determine upon a plan of campaign. He will name this committee between now and Friday evening, when another meeting will be held, probably at Mr. Hard's office.

Astute political leaders of both parties realize that the battle has resolved itself, not into a fight over mayoralty candidates, but a fight for the political existence of the factions that are behind them. Each element is in the conflict to show the state administration leaders in Columbus "who's who" in Scioto county, and the contest promises to be one of the most bitterly fought in the history of local Republican politics, which has seen some famous skirmishes between the gang and anti-gang factions in the past.

Taken On Cot To See Dying Mother

Mrs. Edna Wilson-Cross, wife of R. B. Cross, night chief train dispatcher of the N. & W. railway, was removed on a cot to Peebles, Ohio, Tuesday, that she might again see her dying mother, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, who is hourly expected to succumb to cancer. Mrs. Cross herself is dangerously ill and grave fears are entertained that she will not long survive the mother. She was removed from her home at No. 1657 Highland avenue to an N. & W. train in Daehler's ambulance.

Says Carr Refused To Divide Season

Relative to Huntington's refusal to enter the Ohio State league, the Ironton Irononian Wednesday morning printed the following version of Huntington's reason for not taking up organized base ball again:

"Because President Joe Carr would not consent to a division of the Ohio State league circuit into two seasons, Dr. Stern, who came here last night to confer with Mr. Carr over the placing of the defunct Chillicothe Babes in Huntington, refused to accept the franchise and the entire deal was called off. Either Maysville, Ky., or Winchester, Ky., will enter the league, it was stated.

President Carr guaranteeing that the schedule would be played out.

"Mr. Stern, who came here to witness the game Tuesday between the Natters and the ex-Babes, declared that he was not at all pleased with the Chillicothe club as it now stands but that with a divided season he would see to it that the club was greatly strengthened and then perhaps it would have a chance of landing the pennant. Otherwise he would not accept. President Carr offered to make any other concessions that Mr. Stern might ask but refused to divide the season."

Heirs To Receive The Elhoff Property

An entry, setting forth the distribution of the Elhoff estate among the heirs involved in the partition suit of Norma Irene Elhoff against Nancy J. Elhoff, Cooper and others, was filed in common pleas court Wednesday. The heirs elected to take the property assigned to each. It provides that Garnet Elhoff, minor heir, shall receive property of the value of $9040; Nancy J. Elhoff, the widow, $14,000; and Norma Irene Cooper, the other heir, $8000. The Elhoff homestead on Gallia avenue in New Boston is included in the property assigned to Nancy J. Elhoff, Cooper.

The entry also confirms the appointment of Norma Irene Cooper as guardian of Garnet Elhoff, the minor heir.

WHEAT TAKES A JUMP

Chicago, July 14.—Wheat made a wild advance in price today, jumping up five and a half cents a bushel in some cases, as compared with last night. Just before the close the July option sold as high as $1.15, against $1.10 1/2 at yesterday's finish. The upward rush of values was largely the result of new reports of black rust in the chief producing states of the spring crop.

E. K. S. Clinkenbeard, cutter for Hall Bros., was detained at home by sickness Tuesday.

The Movies

Olara Kimball Young in "Hearts in Exile" At Lyric Tomorrow.

That truth is stronger than fiction will be acknowledged by all who see this remarkable story of Russian life unfolded on the screen. Russia has produced probably more idealists, more people who would and have sacrificed themselves for the highest principles than all the other countries of the world. It seems incredible that a woman of the highest character, sweet, lovable and self-sacrificing could be brought face to face with a situation whereby she is confronted with two husbands, to each of which she has been legitimately married. This situation which bears some resemblance to the story of Enchanted Arden is but one of many thrilling situations which abound in the picture. The far reaching power of police officialism, the love of two men for a high-souled woman, cruelties and privations suffered by political and other prisoners who are condemned to exile in Siberia, life in convict stations, cockroach fights, and a real wolf chase, are incidents which are depicted with startling realism and conviction.

"Hearts in Exile" is a novel by John Oxenham founded on fact and the pictorialized version made specially for Olara Kimball Young has given her a wonderful story. In the part of Hope Ivanovna she has found a role for which she is uniquely fitted and her characterization of this lovable Russian girl is so remarkably appealing that she will undoubtedly win the greatest success of her career as a picture star. Director James Young has surrounded her with a magnificent cast and no expenses has been spared in what will prove to be one of the finest pictures ever produced.

"Shadows of a Great City" Columbia Tonight

In the popular plays and players production of the famous melo-drama "The Shadows of a Great City" the director of the film selected for scenic settings such well known spots throughout New York city as Chatham Square, Five Points, Mott and Doyers streets, Chinatown, the top of the Woolworth building, Grand Central Terminal, Twenty-third street, the base of the Statue of Liberty, East River, Harlem River Bridge, Blackwell's Island and Brooklyn bridge, Wall Street and Times Square Subway station.

These locations fit admirably into the action of the play and give a piece of local color that could have been gotten in no other way, save to take the pictures right where the manuscript stated. "The Shadows of a Great City" is a stirring and dramatic situations are such as to arouse that intense enthusiasm that goes with rapid, active dramatic climaxes, that touch home with the average auditors. The plot is one well remembered by the older theatregoers as having been popular many years ago. Its unconventional theme, the surprising finish and many little tangles not reckoned with by the onlooker, constitute a most formidable play.

Thomas Jefferson and Adelaide Thurston, two prominent dramatic stars plays the leading roles, supported by a specially selected cast.

Don't miss the "Shadows of a Great City" at the Columbia this evening. It is in five reels with over two hundred interesting scenes. No advance in price; all seats 10 cents and be sure and see it.

Special Comedy Feature At The Exhibit Tonight

Promises of something special in a comedy way which the management of the Exhibit has made is to be fulfilled tonight. Special attention is being directed to comedies by the Keystone people as they are devoting their efforts to producing one big comedy hit a week. As soon as they are placed on the market Manager Law receives a copy of them and thus local patrons are enabled to see first run pictures. With the recognized greatest moving picture director in the world, Keystone comedies are the peers. It was the Keystone people who developed Charlie Chaplin. But they have a better comedian which they are introducing to the public. His name is Chester Conklin. His first big work in the special features will be shown at the Exhibit tonight. The picture is "The Cannon Ball." This comedy is a scorch from start to finish. You start with a smile and end with a roar. Two reels of as high class and refined comedy as one would wish to see. There is a cool house, splendid music and inviting pictures all waiting for you at the Exhibit for the price of five cents.

Universal Feature at Arcane Theatre Tonight

One of those soul stirring romantic dramas, entitled "From Italy's Shores," a big two reel Universal drama, will be the headliner at the Arcane theatre tonight. This is a heart story, beautiful and touching.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up. Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more sneezing, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Heat colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

Tomorrow don't forget the big feature. It is to be a Charlie Chaplin and a big humorous picture, one that will make 'em all laugh.

At The Scenic

Edgar Jones and Justina Hunt in the Lubin two reel feature, "Men of the Mountains," is the big feature on tonight's interesting program at the Scenic. It is a powerful and thrilling tale of mountaineer life, one that you will be sure to enjoy. The third reel is an Edison drama called "When Gratitude Is Love," in which Margaret Prussing is featured. The fourth and closing reel is a screamingly funny Selig western comedy called "Sage Brush Tom" with Tom Moe in the title role. You should not miss this great program. It is always cool and comfortable at the Scenic and the show is always good. Our pictures are bright, clear, and flickerless. Tomorrow's feature is the Lubin three reel drama, "The Siren of Corsica," with Joseph Smiley and Lillie Leslie featured.

10c Temple Theatre

If you like a red-blooded picture of a real life of a detective, of a kindly open-hearted girl, who is not ashamed of her emotions, nor of showing them, see Irene Hunt in a thrilling detective chase and Pearl White in the "Exploits of Elaine." The Temple has been the scene of countless thrilling pictures, we venture to assert, however, that never before has a program been presented so full of real interest as tonight's. Every scene a tingle.

At The Majestic

"His Own Accuser" is the two reel dramatic picture at the Majestic tonight. It is a drama extraordinary containing all the thrills, intrigues and love themes that are required in the popular moving pictures. The bill is also strengthened by a good comedy entitled "A Wife's Way." Good side-splitting comedy is contained in every foot of this picture.

The management has provided for the comfort of its patrons by installing a number of electric fans. These fans are always on the go and keep the house cool and comfortable. There is plenty of good pictures, a cool house and a small admission at the Majestic.

At The Pastime

"Convict Costumes and Confusion" is the title of the two reel comedy feature at the Pastime in Sciotoville tonight. It is a Vitaphone production and an exceptionally good one. A Biograph one reel drama entitled "In Quest of a Story" is another picture on the program. "A Believer in Dreams" is also to be found on the bill. It is a one reel drama.

Chaplin At The Strand

Tonight, patrons of The Strand will be favored with the strongest program it has ever been our pleasure to run. First, a two-reel Charlie Chaplin comedy, "His Tramping Places," one of his very best subjects, and acted in his own inimitable style and cannot fail to please everybody. The second feature is "The Jungle Queen" in two acts, and is conceived to be one of the greatest wild animal pictures ever attempted. It is full of thrills and chills.

SAYS WIFE HAD BEER PARTIES AT HER HOME

Gross neglect of duty and adultery is alleged in the divorce petition of Edward M. Wear, husband of Carrie A. Wear, who seeks a legal separation from his wife. He claims that prior to June 26, last, she paid no attention to her household duties, compelled him to cook his own meals, stayed out late at night, kept company with other men, and entertained them with beer parties at their home.

He further charges that his wife left his home on June 26, last, on a pretense of going to Cincinnati to visit relatives, and has since absented herself from his home. Adultery with Sanford Webb and Lawrence Harrison at various times is also charged.

The couple were married October 23, 1901, and have no children, the petition says.

The members of the Men's Big Bible class will attend both services in a body and "root" for their popular teacher. The Pili-grim Singers will sing both morning and evening. A big hot weather house is expected.

SWEET PEAS PLENTIFUL

Manchester, July 14.—Rev. Mr. Huntington, pastor at the M. E. church, has shipped to the Cincinnati market 7,400 sweet pea blossoms from a patch of ground less than 500 feet square. He delivered bunches of the flowers by the arm load to the church and to private families. The space is now a mass of bloom that will be permitted to go to seed.

MARION CHURCH THINKS DR. M'AFEE WILL ACCEPT

Whether Rev. T. H. McAfee, of the First Baptist church accepts a call extended by the Trinity Baptist church of Marion, Ohio, or remain in Portsmouth, will probably be decided at a congregational meeting of the First Baptist church tonight (Wednesday). Rev. McAfee stated Wednesday when asked by the Times of his possibilities of leaving Portsmouth and accepting the Marion call, that the Marion church was very anxious to have him accept the pastorate. He was recently in conference with the Marion church officials. Local parishioners are loath to see Rev. McAfee leave the city and the church. Under his pastorate it has grown and flourished and is exceedingly well established. According to the Marion Tribune, members of Trinity Baptist church, Marion, are figuring on Rev. McAfee assuming the pastorate of the church about September 1, but Rev. McAfee insists that they have no grounds for such an authoritative statement.

The Tribune says: "Rev. T. H. McAfee, of Portsmouth, recently invited to become pastor of Trinity Baptist church, came to Marion today to confer with members of Trinity Baptist church at a meeting held at the church last night."

"Rev. McAfee did not consent to become pastor of the local church, but the consensus of opinion of local members is, that he will be the next pastor."

"Rev. McAfee's church in Portsmouth is unwilling to release him at present. However, he will confer with his parishioners during the present week, and if agreeable arrangements can be made, he will come to this city as pastor of the Trinity Baptist church on September 1."

"In the meantime the local church will not give up hope of securing Rev. McAfee's services. He made a very favorable impression here. As a speaker he is remarkably eloquent, his personality is fine and magnetic. He is said to be a great church worker and is more than an ordinary expositor of the Bible."

"The local pulpit will be filled next Sunday by a supply, Rev. Mr. Julian of Sunbury. Then the church will be closed in consideration of the chautauqua, which opens a week from Sunday and will remain closed during August."

"Rev. McAfee returned to Portsmouth this morning. In the near future he will leave for a Bible conference on Lake Erie, where he will take a leading part."

Elmer Hennessy of Seventeenth street, who on his return from Norfolk, Va., was taken very ill, is reported a little better, and unless fever sets in he will recover nicely.

IT RUINS HAIR TO WASH IT WITH SOAP

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps contain powerful chemicals which make the hair brittle and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mild soap (which is pure and gentle), is cleaner and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses out every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get mildified coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

SOCIETY

Miss Bertha Clausen, entertained the King's Daughters' Class of the Fourth Street Methodist church, last evening at her home on Campbell avenue. After the business there was a surprise in store for Miss Maud Reigel, fiancée of Mr. Stanton Shida. A cobweb with flowers for all was followed by all the girls, Miss Reigel's web being the largest and led to a beautifully decorated dining-room, where she found a large heart entwined with a cobweb, which she unwound, finding beautiful gifts at the end of each string hidden in all parts of the room. After looking at the pretty gifts, with which the bride-to-be was delighted, the hostess served dainty refreshments, assisted by Miss Edna Greifer. The color scheme was pink and white. The table was beautiful with pink sweet peas and cupid. Those present were Misses Nelle Wendelken, Edna Griver, Ethel Ran, Clara Lindsley, Helen Nau, Baby Cummings, Maude Reigel, Eva Locher, Bertha Clausen, Mrs. Sadie Dement. After wishing Miss Reigel a happy future all departed for their home at a late hour.

Class Number 2 of the Grandview Avenue Christian Sunday school held the regular meeting Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Thomas, 1710 Grandview avenue, where there were 42 members present. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Thomas served dainty refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Paris King, Mrs. Secret and Mrs. Fred Thomas.

Mrs. Philip Frick and Mrs. Samuel Brock entertained Mrs. Bess Turner's class of the Methodist Sunday school last evening at Mrs. Frick's home in Seletoville. Ice cream, cake and punch were served by the hostesses. Those present were Mesdames J. T. Brown, Alice Finney, Z. T. Belmont, T. Q. Shump, John Williams, Carey Walden, Jack Hopkins, Martha Price, Ed Ketter, Lora Kingery, Graves DeCrow, Thomas Brock, Joseph Rider, Chas. Brock, Philip Frick, Sam Brock, Bess Turner.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Thompson, of Seventh street, are at home from Madison, Ind., where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Jessie Welcoming, for ten days. The trip was made in their car. They found the Indiana roads fine, but the roads in Ohio very bad.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. Hammel have as guests their daughters, Mrs. Isadore Edelson and daughter, Rosemary, of Ashland, Ky., and Mrs. M. E. Edelson and three daughters, Alfrada, Rowena and Evelyn, of Tronton.

Mrs. John Semmelbeck and son, Albert Semmelbeck, and Mrs. Edward Lanter are spending this week with Mr. Clemens Keszmele, at Shady Nook.

Miss Florence Ives will come home the last of this week from Cincinnati, where she has been visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson, and also visited friends in Oxford.

Squire Byron officiated at the marriage Wednesday morning of James Parish, 21, a government employee, of Concord, Ky., and Ruth H. Covert, of this city. They obtained their marriage license in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Fountain Knight (Mary Lancaster) are enjoying a delightful visit in Bluefield, W. Va., and will not return from their wedding trip until some time in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilhelm came home last night at the end of a delightful trip to Niagara Falls, Rochester, N. Y., Boston, Mass., a trip up the Hudson, visited the battleships at Portsmouth, Va., went from there to Richmond, Va., and to Virginia Beach.

Miss Clara Sherman's class of the Fourth Street Methodist Sunday school met last evening at the home of Mrs. William McElhenny, on Off-nere street, where Mrs. Mary Koger was the hostess. There were eighteen present. Refreshments followed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Clausen, on Fifth street.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of Trinity Methodist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Albert Hynes, on the Chillicothe pike. The assisting hostesses were Mesdames Heild, Cole, Oakes, Covert, Potter, Hart and Marsh. There were thirty-five members and five visitors present. There were readings by Mrs. Charles Rice, Mrs. Frank Appel and Mrs. Harry Donaldson. Miss Gertrude Davidson sang pretty vocal selections, accompanied by Mrs. Samuel R. Crawford. Arrangements were made to hold next month's meeting at the summer camp of Mrs. Howard Sellards. The hostess served refreshments.

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer, of Fourth street, was the scene of a tea this afternoon, when Miss Marie Bauer entertained for her charming guest, Miss Juliet Bell Kiker, of Ripley, and also for Miss Helen Dunn's guest, Miss Florence Baird, of Ripley. The rooms were beautiful with a profusion of cut flowers. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Blanche Witten, of Bluefield, W. Va., guest of Mrs. J. T. NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, July 14—Heavy trading in United States Steel, American Can and Westinghouse, marked the day's early dealings. The first transaction in steel comprised a lot of 2,200 shares at a fractional advance while Can gained a point on an exchange of 3500 shares. Westinghouse was offered in lots of 1,000 to 2,500 at a steady advance to 2 1/2 points. Other war shares, like New York Air Brake, Crucible Steel and Baldwin Locomotive soon rose 1 to 3 points with a gain of 3 points for General Motors. Standard railways, including Reading, Canadian Pacific, Great Northern and Atchafalaya reacted moderately. Sales in the first hour amounted to 170,000 shares. Westinghouse, Baldwin Locomotive, Can and Steel contributing more than half in the order named. New records were scored by Can, Baldwin, Studebaker, General Motors and Willys-Overland, and the further rise in the first two substantial report of additional large war contracts. Among the utilities, Western Union and Consolidated Gas were especially strong. Higher prices ruled in the second hour. In the bond division future sales of Consolidated Gas 6's and United States Steel 5's were the features.

foreigners. After opening unchanged to be higher the market declined to well below last night's level all around.

Corn was governed chiefly by the action of wheat. Business lacked volume. Opening prices, which varied from 1/4 to 3/4 off to 3/4 advance, were followed by a moderate general setback.

Despite fairly good sales to the seaboard, oats merely reflected the course of other grain. Country offerings remained small.

Provisions suffered from absence of support. Higher prices for hogs were ignored.

Subsequently prices made a sharp advance, the government weekly crop being construed as bullish, and there being conciliatory advice regarding Germany's attitude as to the submarine warfare. Besides, further rust reports were received. The close was strong at 1/2 to 5/4 above last night.

Corn rallied later when wheat turned strong. The close was firm at a shade to 3/4 not advance.

Policeman Becomes a Banker

LEUTENANT JOHN DOWNEY of the Chicago police force resigned on July 6th to become the head of the Dauphin Park Bank.

During his twenty-three years' service he earned about $29,000 from the city, and has accumulated a fortune, it is said, of $100,000.00 by investments in real estate.

Here is a man of 45, who, through, careful investing, has turned the difference between twenty-nine thousand and his living expenses into a hundred thousand. He did it buying lots, building cottages and then selling at a profit.

At first this feat seems wonderful, and indeed it was. But when you stop to think how a nucleus, saved in bank, may be turned over, increased and turned over again by careful and judicious handling, it doesn't seem so difficult, after all.

Man Who Said He Was Going To Build A Steel Plant Here Is Being Held By The Police

Police officials believe that by taking into custody Wednesday afternoon a man going under the name of William Briggs, of Pittsburgh, they caused the undoing of an impostor and veritable "Get-Rich-Quick" Wallingford.

Briggs has been about Portsmouth and vicinity for some days past, sailing under the euphonious title of general superintendent of the Pennsylvania Construction company, but his own personal unimpeachable appearance and shabby clothes, as well as his general manner, seemed to give the lie to his claims.

It remained for Grant Snyder, a foreman for the Ryan company, general contractors of Elkhart, Tenn., engaged in construction work for the C. & O. and Northern railway near Sciotoville, to become the stranger's Nemesis.

Snyder had been camping upon Briggs' trail ever since he offered him a foremanship a few days ago in a big new steel plant he represented his company was going to erect at Wheelersburg. He wanted to enter into contract with him, Snyder to put up a $25 cash bond with him as evidence of good faith, the money to be paid back at the expiration of the first year. Snyder's suspicions were confirmed when he learned that Briggs was stopping at a second class hotel. His long experience with manufacturers and contractors satisfied him from the start that he had better give the stranger a wide berth, so he refused to entertain his proposition. It soon developed that the man had induced J. D. Copley, of Little Scioto, to give him $25 as a bond under promise of a foremanship and had promised positions to his brother, Radical Copley, and their nephew, M. D. Trogon, at the Biggs.

Briggs stoutly maintained his innocence of any wrongdoing, insisting that he was "on the level," but he was ordered locked up for investigation. Police learned that he is behind in his board bill at the Biggs.

MAY MOVE SMOKE HOUSE

It was learned Wednesday that Messrs. George McMahon and Frank Stanton, proprietors of the Smoke House on Gallia street, are looking for the Richardson room on Chillicothe street recently vacated by Charles Weber, a shoe dealer.

Chris Mulavazov, who has leased the Richardson building, stated Wednesday that in all probability the deal would be closed Thursday. The Smoke House was for several years located in the Grand Opera House building.

Frank Kelley, a negro, and his wife mutually proclaimed the love they have for each other during his hearing in police court, but the wife said she could not countenance his conduct of Monday night and she floored him with her trusty mitt. He was fined five dollars.

FIRST ACCOUNT OF MEXICO CITY'S FALL

Washington, July 14.—The first narrative account of the capture of Mexico City was received here today by General Carranza's agency from Vera Cruz. It states that the early engagements, in which it was reported Carranza troops were defeated, were minor fights during which General Golez was distributing his army for the final effort.

"The actual fighting began on the morning of Thursday July 8 at Tepic and from that time until the finish the Constitutionalists forces lost not a foot of ground but gained consistently and uninterruptedly," says the report.

The fighting of July 8 did not end until the enemy were behind their entrenchments at the grand canal and at Corregordo. There was a heavy artillery bombardment of the Corregordo all day but none of the shells reached the city proper, owing to the distance.

"At four o'clock on the morning of July 9 fighting was renewed with a heavy artillery fire which shortly silenced the enemy artillery. Immediately the Zapata guns had ceased firing, an infantry charge was ordered and after a severe fight the entrenchments of the Zapatistas were carried and the Constitutionalists soldiers gained their way into Villa de Guadalupe.

WILSON WILL LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON TO DISCUSS NOTE SOON

Washington, July 14.—Pending the return of President Wilson from Cornish, N. H., it was believed here today there would be no further developments in the situation that has arisen between Germany and the United States over German submarine warfare.

Just when the president would return to take up with his cabinet the latest German note was not definitely known, but the president, in a dispatch to Secretary Tamm, said that he would be here soon. The opposition is of the opinion that the president will be in Washington the last of the week.

The president's telegram was given out as a White House statement, and ended rumors concerning his attitude toward the German reply. It indicated that the president had reached no decision as to the policy of the government and it is believed to have been called forth by statements that he already had made up his mind and that he did not view the situation as seriously as some of his advisers.

The statement said the president was giving the German note his closest attention, keeping constantly in touch with Secretary Lansing, and that as soon as both had maturely considered the situation, the president would return personally to discuss it with Mr. Lansing and the cabinet, after which there would be prompt an announcement as possible of the purposes of the government.

It was originally President Wilson's intention to summon Secretary Lansing to Cornish, but the plan has been given up. Secretary Lansing and other cabinet members continued to view the situation as grave, but gave no hint as to how the problem should be met.

REVOLT IN CHINA IS FEARED

Washington, July 14.—Evidence of revolutionary plots in China are indicated in unofficial advice to the state department from Canton which told of the finding of bombs on two occasions near there during the past six weeks. On June third soldiers raided a house in Canton where they discovered two bombs and a lot of suspicious correspondence. Two arrests were made.

On May 27, according to the same advice, "a tin containing ten bombs and some revolutionary letters of appointment, badges, etc., was found by the police outside a cottage in Hoonan." The five occupants of the cottage were arrested.

BILLION BUSHEL WHEAT CROP IS ASSURED

Washington, July 14.—Prospects for the billion bushel wheat crop continued to grow during the week ended yesterday. Spring wheat had the most favorable week of the season over much of the belt and the outlook everywhere is most promising. The national weather and crop bulletin announced today that winter wheat, however, had unfavorable weather and harvesting should be important producing sections by rain much ripe wheat being still harvested.

Claim Garrison's Appointment Illegal

Toledo, July 14.—Appointment by Secretary of State Hildebrandt of Attorney Raymond T. Garrison as a Republican member of the Lucas county election board was repudiated at a meeting of the county central committee held last night for the purpose of endorsing a candidate for the position. Frank Baird, former state oil inspector, was endorsed. The Baird faction claim Garrison's appointment was illegal.

A court injunction restrains Garrison from acting as a member of the election board. The legality of Garrison's appointment, it is thought, will eventually be decided by a court. An echo of the state fight with Governor Willis on one side and Secretary of State Hildebrandt, Attorney General Turner and Chairman Jones on the other, was heard when Otto Hankison, Willis representative in Northwest Ohio, voted for Baird.

Want Coal With, Or Without Water?

Columbus, July 14.—Why is the short weight of coal?

Fred C. Albrecht, state scaler of weights and measures, said today he thinks he has discovered the reason, and the result may be that coal buyers will have to specify whether they wish coal "with or without" water. A ton of water may be contained in the coal as loaded at the mine, and evaporated entirely when it reaches its destination.

Scaler Albrecht's discovery came about in this manner: A railway company shipping large quantities of limestone from Columbus to blast furnaces over the state received constant complaints that the quantity delivered was less than the amount loaded. The railway officials watched the cars and found none was stolen enroute, yet the weights as shown by scales at Columbus and at the destination continued to vary. Both scales were tested and both were found correct.

Then the state scaler was called in, and a series of experiments which he has not yet completed show these results:

About three percent of the weight of stone as loaded at the quarry is water within the rock; a four-pound rock taken direct from the quarry and allowed to stand for several days then weighed between 2 and 2½ ounces less; fifty tons of rock loaded in a car at Columbus and carried in dry weather to Barberston, spending several days on the road, weighed less than 49 tons.

Now Mr. Albrecht is planning a series of similar experiments with coal. He is convinced that the water absorption of coal is great, though it probably will not be as much as that of limestones. He hopes the results of his tests may eventually become the basis for agreements to buy mineral products "before drying," or "after drying."

Shriners To Elect Officers Today

Seattle Wash., July 14.—The election of officers promised to be the feature of today's session of the forty-first annual council of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. Interest in the contest for the Imperial Outer Guard was heightened by the entrance into the race of D. C. O'Flaherty, Past Potentate of Aeca Temple, Richmond, Virginia, who took third place at the Atlanta convention last year, and Arthur L. Smith, Potentate of El Amin Temple, Little Rock, Arkansas.

In the contest for the 1916 confederate Ismailia Temple, Buffalo, N. Y., Crescent Temple, Trenton, N. J., and possibly Moslem Temple, of Detroit, are contenders. Present indications favor the Buffalo Temple. If Trenton should win, the convention would be held in Atlantic City.

Crosser Moves To Foil Gerrymander

Cleveland, July 14.—Congressman Robert Crosser, who represents the twenty-first district in congress, was moving today to dodge the new Ohio congressional gerrymander law. Crosser's home has been gerrymandered into the twenty-second district reputed to be overwhelmingly Republican.

Crosser is a Democrat. The congressman's new home is in a street that is in both the old and the new twenty-first district, so he is safe whether the gerrymander stands or is defeated in the proposed referendum.

CONVICTED DAIRY MEN TO ASK NEW TRIAL

Columbus, July 14.—Motion for a new trial in the cases of Dennis Kelly, millionaire business man of Columbus and three other wealthy defendants, found guilty last night by a jury in the federal court of defrauding the government in taxes on colored oleomargarine, will be heard by United States District Judge John E. Sater on July 21.

Kelly, W. H. Eberst and W. H. Kelley, officials and agents of the Capital City Dairy company, which is alleged to have evaded the payment of taxes in excess of $1,000,000 were in court today and were released on $20,000 bond each.

BASEBALL WEEKLY SUSPENDS

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 14.—The Baseball Weekly, a weekly publication, which was allowed to have conducted baseball pools through out the country, suspended publication yesterday. John J. DRUGLESS HEALERS TO PASS EXAMINATION

Columbus, July 14.—Applications for drugless healers whose practice is legalized by the Platt-Elis law, were ready at the office of the state medical board today. Dr. George H. Matson, secretary of the board, announced that the applications may be filed any time before October 1, although the board will be free to act on them after August 1, when the law goes into effect. Several thousand applications are expected and all will have to pass examinations before being licensed. The law applies to chiropractors, psychotherapists, neuropaths, naturopaths, hydropaths, mechanotherapists, electrotherapists, masseurs, chiropodists and all other drugless healers, excepting religious cults.

Nurses, who will be registered under the new Sprague bill, may secure application forms sometime next week. Dr. Matson announced. Hospital authorities are displaying great interest in the law he said.

SHOE MEN ARE PLANNING NEXT SEASON SAMPLES

For the purpose of deciding on just what line of shoes the Selby shoe company will turn out in its line for next spring, the sample committee met at the factory Wednesday and began the task of definitely shaping up the line.

The committee is composed of E. C. Heer, of Chicago; J. C. Flynn, of Joliet, Ill.; Joseph Shaw of Philadelphia; P. A. Ritter, of Dallas; and C. A. Risley, of Columbus. The firm's semi-annual shoe congress will begin Monday, July 19.

Salesmen of the Irving Drew shoe company are holding their semi-annual shoe building period. It was stated Wednesday the spring line of this firm would contain many fancy strap shoes and that black shoes would have the call over tan shoes. There will not be any radical changes in the widths of the shoes or the heights of the heels. These salesmen are attending the conference: C. L. Spencer, O. R. Brundage, C. Strayer, Charles Bert, Charles Maxwell, Eli Smith, Walter Bittner and John Conroy. Salesmen of the Excelsior shoe company will meet here in August to pick out their samples.

Health Rules For Summer

Now that the heated term has arrived with colors flying especial care should be taken of babies and the "grown-ups" as well should pay strict attention to their diet as well as the little folks if they would be cool and comfortable and avoid the physical disturbances that are ushered in by acts of indiscretion during the torrid weather, according to City Physician Dr. Charles Wendelen.

When asked to give a few simple rules to respect during the summer months by mothers and grown people, Dr. Wendelen, Wednesday kindly submitted the following timely list:

Dress babies as cool as possible. Have them wear as few clothes as possible.

Give babies plenty of cool water, but no ice water under any condition.

Mothers should feed babies very moderately. Don't overload their stomachs.

Babies should be bathed in tepid water each morning and evening during the summer.

Keep all milk on ice and where baby is bottle-fed nipples should be sterilized each day.

Don't worry and fret over the little things during heat waves. You will only aggravate your condition.

Don't drink too much ice water and don't fill the stomach with all kinds of so-called cooling drinks.

Lemonade is the best drink during the summer.

Drink all the water you want with your meals. The theory that it is harmful to do this has been exploded.

Wear light clothes, both in weight and color. Imagination plays a big part in how you stand the heat.

Keep in shade as much as possible and by all means keep out of direct rays of the sun as much as possible.

When a person becomes overheated quickly carry the victim to a shady spot and place ice on his head. Then call a physician.

Don't exert yourself during the heat waves that engulf the city. Acts of indiscretion in a dietetic way only result in you suffering all the more from the heat.

Don't eat green apples and then load up with ice water.

AIDES ARE NAMED FOR THE CHILDREN'S PARADE

Si Straus, chairman of the Children's Parade, which will be held during the Korn Karival announced Wednesday that he had named the following assistants to look after many features of this parade, which is to be one of the most picturesque pageants of the Karival as the children will wear all kinds of fancy uniforms: Chester Riggles, Ernest Kelley, Joseph Kowitz, Wilbur Ailes, Harry Boyd, Eugene Wurster, Frank Stanton, George McMahon, Chris Hansen, Wm. Atlas, Louis Levi, Sylvan Lehman, E. C. Hood, John Kahmar, John Soumer, Albert Maier, Raymond York, Russell Anderson, Oscar Anderson, Roy McElhane, Arthur Hamm, H. S. Protracted Spree

Police officials devoted their spare time Wednesday morning trying to straighten out a structural iron man claiming to be William Leffler, of Zanesville, O., who has been on a protracted spree. He was given a "joy-ride" in the service wagon and then told to visit York place. His money was withheld and he was given the privilege of returning for his meals. Of the twenty dollars that he had when first arrested a week ago he has but little left, having had two fines assessed against him and some doctor bills to pay, having injured himself in falling. For a time he was on the verge of delirium tremens.

Lehman Bros. Plan A New Building For Chillicothe Street

It was learned Wednesday that Lehman Bros., expect to erect a fine three story brick building next door to their store or on the site of the Henry Baker barber shop at 308 Chillicothe street, next year.

The new structure will have a frontage of 18 ft. and depth of 100 ft. and will be a modern building in every respect.

Lehman Bros. own the two walks on the site so that the front will be the main item to be considered in the construction.

Moses Lehman dismissed as unfounded Wednesday reports that he and his brother expect to erect a 6-story concrete building on their Gallia street ground with a cross-alley arch way and two story warehouse on Fourth street for a large Chillicothe street business firm. He said the Fourth street property had been bought purely as an investment and that they had no building plans for it. He said they had been approached by several different parties to build on the Gallia street lot but that they had purposely placed a prohibitive price on it intending to hold it in reserve for themselves for they might some day erect a building of their own there but while they were not tied up by any long term leases they were satisfied with the present tenants and did not expect to disturb them.

Predict Good Tobacco Crop In Scioto Co.

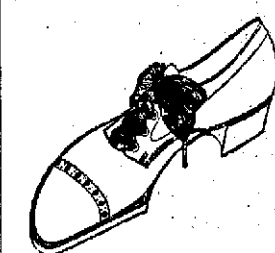

The Cincinnati Enquirer's tobacco crop report published Tuesday included the following of local interest:

"Scioto County—Early drought retarded the growth of plants, the seeds failing to germinate until the latter rains. Conditions were never more favorable at planting time, and the indications are that the yield will be one of the best in the history of Scioto county."

"Lewis County, Kentucky—The early growth of tobacco was retarded by lack of rains in April, and in May rains were so heavy that ground could not be properly prepared, so that the transplanting was greatly delayed."

"Greenup County, Kentucky—Plant beds were extra good this year and a favorable season has started the tobacco crop off well."

everything in my power to please her, but she seems to like another young man better. I feel as though I couldn't get along without her. What would you advise me to do about it?

CHARLEY.

Give her up. You are young enough to find another girl in time. There are so many cases like yours, Charley, and they are so hopeless. When a girl decides not to care for a boy, it is almost impossible to change her mind.

Dear Dolly.—I had the misfortune to spill some milk on a beautiful pair of tan shoes and I wish you would tell me how to remove it. I haven't touched the stain yet.

DAVE.

To remove milk stains, sponge the spot with warm suds, wetting very slightly, just enough to take off the crust of the milk. Then extract the grease by covering the spot with powdered French chalk dampened with ammonia.

Dear Dolly.—A few weeks ago my boy friend went out with another girl who is not well thought of by a great many people. I had been going steady with this one boy for almost a year. As soon as I found out that he had been with this girl I got angry and he quit coming up. I haven't had the chance to talk to him about the matter, but I think he did wrong and it is his place to come to me first. We are both very independent, and I think he is waiting for me to come to him. Do you think it is my place to call him up or tell him to come up, because I want to talk to him? Or would you let him make the first advances? I think a lot of the boy and think he does me, from what he has said. Kindly advise me what to do. I am 18 years old.

BLUE EYES.

A good reputation should mean a lot more to a girl than any one man. If you should continue to go with this boy when you know that he is also paying attention to a questionable girl, you are endangering your reputation. Therefore let him come to you when he is ready to keep only one respectable company. There are many more fine boys, Blue Eyes, and if you lose him try not to grieve. You will be very glad some day, if you aren't right now, that you took this stand.

Dear Dolly.—Can a light person wear yellow? M. M. A dark person wears yellow much better. Yellow is not effective for most blondes.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am a young man of 20 with good habits. I am in love with a girl and do everything in my power to please her, but she seems to like another young man better. I feel as though I couldn't get along without her. What would you advise me to do about it?

wool, a dozen linen or cambie skirts, prettily trimmed. Besides these you should have four fine flannel wrappers—miniature kimono—to cast about the baby on cool mornings. This is a mere outline, but you can not go wrong in getting what I have named. The slips and petticoats may be cut down for short clothes at the end of six months, so nothing will be thrown away. Some mothers insist upon ordering a dozen of each article. I suggest a less expensive layette, to which you may make additions as taste and means dictate.

Dear Miss Wise.—My husband is in the penitentiary and my mother wants me to get a divorce. But I love my husband and he loves me, and we have two children. But my mother says, the disgrace is killing her, and she is after me all the time until I am nearly crazy. So please tell me what you think about this.

KENTUCKY READER.

Your loyalty to your husband in the time of his disgrace will probably do more to reform him than the prison life will do. Your mother has lived her life in her own way, probably. Tell her that you must be allowed to live your own life in your own way, and that this way includes faith in your husband's better nature, and that you intend to give him another chance to be the right kind of a father to his little children. After he has served his time you could go to another city and start life over again.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Louis Phillips, of Grayson, Ky., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shagan, of Fourth street.

Class Number Two of the New Boston Christian church, Mrs. Thomas O'Neil teacher, will hold an entertainment at the church Thursday evening.

Items of interest in Portsmouth are taken from the New Florence, Mo., paper, as follows:

"William and Angus Adams entertained the young people of this village with a lawn party Friday evening. The yard was decorated with Japanese lanterns and under a brilliant moon they made a very pleasing effect. A clairvoyant was present and fortunes were told 'with or without pain.' Everyone was premissiously invited to fish, but were compelled to first secure a license by answering (to some) alarming personal interrogations. A souvenir was thus secured. Neapolitan cream and cake were served on the lawn to a warm and appreciative crowd. The popularity of 'Love's Retreat' evidenced the tact of the Messrs. Adams in arranging for the pleasure of everyone. All were delighted.

"Lawrence Evans had a narrow escape from death by drowning one day last week, and is very thankful to Samuel Adams, who plunged into the pond at The Meadows, with his clothes on, and rescued him. Lawrence went down twice in about six feet of water, the rail had been floating on having turned over."

The Adams boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Adams, of Florence, formerly of Portsmouth.

The Hilltop Literary Club held the first meeting last evening, after a two months' vacation, at the home of Mrs. G. A. Mooney, on Vinton avenue, where an excellent program was given as follows:

HAIR MADE CURLY IN SINGLE NIGHT

(Woman's Tribune.) It has been discovered that the application of liquid stimerine actually makes straight hair curly and wavy in a single night. Also it acts as a perfectly harmless hair beautifier and dressing. It has the peculiar quality of drying in pretty waves, swirls and crimps. Straight, lanky hair and the cruel curling iron are no longer necessary. Any druggist of course can supply you with a few ounces of the liquid stimerine, enough to keep the hair curly for several weeks. It is neither sticky nor greasy, but very pleasant to use. Apply to the hair at bedtime with a clean tooth brush. In the morning your hair will be very beautiful and have a most natural curl and waviness.

The Home for Aged Women will give a supper tomorrow evening, beginning at 5 o'clock and serving until late in the evening at the home of Mrs. W. O. Fout on the Chillicothe pike. Auto parties can stop and get their supper and help the home. Recently a concert company came to Portsmouth to give a concert for the benefit of the Home, but the officers decided they would take too much money out of town, and on account of the merchants, turned down that offer, so they hope the merchants will now come to their rescue and get their supper at the Fout home tomorrow evening.

Miss Lena Hauck will entertain Friday afternoon at her home on Offshore street for the pleasure of Miss Helen Dunn's guest, Miss Florence Baird, of Ripley, and Miss Juliet Bell Kicker, of Ripley, guest of Miss Marie Bauer.

Mrs. W. H. Partridge and children, Raymond and Dorothy, of South Webster, are visiting Mrs. Charles Moritz, of Ninth street.

Mrs. R. V. Stewart and four children of 1411 Center street, has returned from a three weeks visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Malcolm of Kenova.

Little Miss Charlotte Turner, who has been visiting Miss Gertrude Hood, of Eighth street, for the past week, returned to her home in Lanesville, Tuesday.

Miss Gladys Gasele returned home Tuesday from a few days' visit with her friend, Miss Lola Arnett, of Frost, Ky.

Mr. Roger Selby's class of Bigelow Methodist Sunday school will picnic Saturday afternoon at Millbrook park. Supper will be served at six o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Halldeman, Misses Augusta and Helen Halldeman and guests, Miss Grace Macbain, of Cleveland, and Mr. Jack George, of New Palestine, Graves, Forest and Jamie Williams motored to Huntington yesterday to attend a dance.

COUNCIL ASSURES FLOOD WALL EXTENSION

$70,000 Bond Issue For Flood Defense

Flood Wall Facts

Bond issue of $70,000 authorized to extend wall from Chillicothe street to Offshore street.

Revised estimate of city engineer for projected improvement, $66,500. Original estimate $60,000.

Route chosen: South from Front and Chillicothe streets to Mill street, east on Mill to Union street, south to Wheeling street, east to Offshore street, north on Offshore to alley between Second and Third streets.

Openings in wall: Chillicothe street, Bond street, Union street, Offshore street and Jackson street.

Steps required: Await expiration of 30 day initiative and referendum limit; sale of bonds; final approval of plans and authorization of advertising of bids and awarding of contract.

Probable time when actual work will be started: October 1, 1915.

Territory that will be protected by new wall: All territory that lies north of Mill and Wheeling streets between Chillicothe and Offshore streets.

Remaining section to complete city's Ohio river defenses and which will probably be built next year: East from Offshore past the Dawson, Barton and Kelley homes along ridge to and across Funk's Gut to golf grounds, connecting there with elevated N. & W. tracks.

Territory unprotected by new wall just authorized: Jackson street, Harmon street, lower Broadway and lower Campbell avenue. Broadway flood embankment protects greater part of East End against 6 1/2 ft. flood stage.

First flood wall built by city, started in 1908 and completed in 1909 at a cost of $35,000. Built by City Engineer J. I. Hudson, assisted by George S. Wilhelm, present city engineer.

Considered one of the best substantial structures of its kind in the world, having the strength of the best of reservoir walls. Has withstood several floods without slightest effect upon it.

The first definite move towards making possible the extension of the city's flood wall from its present terminus, Front and Chillicothe streets, to the east side of Offshore street, with a wing or cross wall north on Offshore to Third street, was begun by city council at an adjourned meeting Tuesday evening when the southern route jointly recommended by the council street committee and the city board of control and the tentative plans and estimate of the city engineer were approved and the city solicitor directed to prepare legislation for a bond issue of $70,000 for that purpose.

The bond ordinance will be presented at the next meeting of council and, if passed, which is intended, unless some objections from citizens may cause it to be laid over for another reading, it must remain dormant for a month under the initiative and referendum act. Another thirty days will be required to sell the bonds and then bids will have to be advertised for so that it will be fully October 1st before any contract can be let and active work started.

Want Citizens To Express Themselves

Messrs. Osborn and Wilson expressed their disappointment because apparently no active interest was shown by citizens in the project for the council lobby was completely deserted. They felt, though, that once the bond ordinance is presented citizens will have something tangible before them and, perhaps, will have the effect of awakening a more active interest. Judging from the way the members expressed themselves individually, council is of one mind, and that is, to get as early a start as possible on the improvement which will form only another connecting link in the city's flood defense, and in no way means that it is to end with the present proposed terminus at Offshore.

It was confined to the territory laid out simply because council felt that this was its financial limit for this year unless other important improvements, such as the proposed new hill-top sewage system were to suffer, and besides it is about all that could be finished this year.

Mr. Schmuck at first thought the $35,000 that it will cost to build the cross wall out Offshore street to the rear of the Rottinghaus garage might better be applied to extending the wall on high ground east from Offshore along the ridge, but finally concurred in the views of the others that the territory ought to be broken and that the cross wall will serve as an added protection to the city defenses in the event of breaks in the wall that will in the future crown the ridge eastward to Funk's Gut.

Want Contractors To Submit Own Plans

Mr. Osborn raised the point of bidders, while being required to bid on the plans of the city engineer, having the alternative of submitting plans of their own. He was assured by both City Solicitor Stanley McCall and City Engineer George S. Wilhelm that this would be agreeable.

The greater part of the meeting was devoted to an informal inspection of plans and discussion of the proposed improvement. It was the consensus of opinion that it would be useless to stop with the improvement at Offshore street and that the city must eventually extend the wall across Funk's Gut and over the golf grounds and connect with the natural defenses formed by the N. & W. tracks.

Later To Extend To Funk's Gut

Engineer Wilhelm ventured the opinion that this would entail a total expenditure of $90,000. The wall would then be two miles long. Along the ridge east from Offshore the wall would only be an average of 5 ft. high and not near as much material would be required. The worst problem would be that of crossing Funk's Gut, but he thought it could be done satisfactorily. He said the city was at present burdened with all of the water from New Boston, but thought the plan of the N. & W. to divert its 8 ft. sewer directly into the Ohio would bring desired relief, particularly in the vicinity of Marmion street. A valve gate at Munn's Run, he said, would also prove a big thing and would be the means of protecting much territory usually flooded from that source, even the new Idlewild addition.

The subject of the strength of the wall was also given much attention. Some thought the wall proper west of Chillicothe street was reinforced unnecessarily strong, and cited instances of big boats ramming it without the slightest effect on the wall, but suffering damage to themselves. Others felt it better to play safe and have a wall a little too strong than too weak. Mayor Adam Frick also suggested that the engineer measure the distance from the new wall line to the Kentucky side and determine whether the clearance of the river was the same as at Market street. Engineer Wilhelm thought it was.

Thinks Foundation Will Be Good

In answer to a query from President W. E. Cook, Mr. Wilhelm expressed the opinion that no quicksand would be found anywhere along the proposed route and said he had found solid clay underneath the garbage dump west of Union street. He said the wall would be materially strengthened at some points because of the absence of a back fill to relieve the pressure against it.

No Final Opinion On Patent Infringement

Solicitor McCall was not prepared to give final opinion on the claim of Frank A. Bone, of the city, infringing upon his patent in the design of the wall. The heel of the wall is imbedded firmly so that the top of the wall will not keel over from pressure. The solicitor thought the contractors might assume the responsibility of assuming royalties. The judgments that Mr. Bone had won in other cities represented ten per cent of the amount of work. He said he had sent for a copy of the patent papers and would render his opinion at the next meeting.

The solicitor suggested as the first step necessary was the matter of issuing bonds, and after these are sold approving of plans and authorizing the service director to advertise for bids and award the contract.

Mr. Gulker, with a view to putting the matter in some definite shape, moved to refer it to the finance committee to provide funds, but Mr. Osborn insisted that now was the time to determine the amount of funds necessary and order the solicitor to prepare the legislation. Mr. Gulker withdrew his motion and Mr. Osborn's motion ordering a $70,000 bond issue prepared was substituted and carried.

Cost Estimated At $6550.00

Clerk Gableman read the following estimate:

Portsmouth, O., July 13, 1915.

Mr. Wm. Gargues, Director of Service, City.

Dear Sir:—In the matter of the Flood Wall, I herewith submit you a revised estimate of the cost of same, based upon the route as directed by the Street Committee of Council, this to supersede the estimate made March 3, 1915, the amount of which was $80,000.00. From Front and Chillicothe streets, south on Chillicothe street to near south side of Mill street, east on Mill street to Union street, south on Union street to Wheeling street, east on Wheeling street to east side of Offshore street, north on Offshore street to alley between Second and Third streets. The estimate calls for heavier buttresses from half-way between Bond and Waller streets to Union street, and along Wheeling street to Offshore street, on account of the wall being so high.

wall was left for future consideration, though Engineer Wilhelm's plans provide for five. He thought one should be located with driveways at Chillicothe street because of probable future ferry service at that point. The others at Bond, Union, Offshore and Jackson streets would be mere square openings such as the one at the present wall terminus, corner of Front and Chillicothe streets.

The mayor, who took an active part in the proceedings, expressed his warm appreciation over the action taken in ordering a bond issue and because it displayed wisdom in limiting the project to what the city was able to bear and carry out for flood protection this year, thereby not spending all available money and leaving it possible to carry out the hill-top sewage plans and other important improvements.

CAR WITH NO LICENSE CAUGHT IN WAR ZONE

Police took charge of a jitney bus belonging to Samuel Burke Wednesday morning, because it was not equipped with a license tag.

Chauffeur McDaniels had halted the jitney in front of the city building to discharge a passenger, when the mayor noticed it did not display a tag. He promptly ordered an officer to confiscate the car and hold it until a license is secured by the owner, who will probably be required to pay a $25 penalty. The mayor and Clerk Dennis Coriell both claimed to have recognized it as the same machine they had observed moving about town Tuesday without a license tag.

LEXINGTON AGAIN DEFEATED BY PORTSMOUTH

Spencerites Made Seven Runs In Last Two Joyful Rounds

Lexington, Kentucky, July 14.

By making seven runs in the final two innings of the Portsmouth-Lexington game here Tuesday, the leaders won out over the Colts by a score of 8 to 3 and thereby further increased its lead over Manager Howard Guyn's team.

Up to the seventh inning it looked like a victory for Lexington as the team was leading 3 to 1. Portsmouth got very busy in the eighth by scoring four runs and then tied the game when three more were scored.

By winning the first two games here the Portsmouth team is shot full of pepper and the Colts will do well to cope one of the remaining two games. Portsmouth's hitting has been a big factor in the team's victories here, their hits coming just when the pathways were crowded. The score:

Fritz Meisel has stolen 33 bases. Ty Cobb has pilfered 48. That is taking away the New Yorker's thunder.

It sure is some race in the National League. Only eight games separate the leading Cubs from the tail-end Braves.

Both Chicago teams are leading still, but they appear to be skating on thin ice.

If the Braves want to repeat they had better be starting soon.

Huntington Will Not Get Franchise In O. S.

Huntington will not enter the Ohio State league at least not this season according to a statement made here last night by President Joe Carr. The Chillicothe franchise may be placed in either Winchester, Ky., or Findlay, O., but no definite announcement along this line has been made. Relative to Huntington's refusal to enter the league, the Herald Dispatch of that city Wednesday morning said:

Huntington's baseball dream faded quietly last night when Dr. R. Stern announced that he and President Joe Carr, of the Ohio State league, had failed to agree on a split season commencing July 15. The announcement came as a surprise as the directors of the Huntington Amusement company met with Mr. Carr yesterday morning and virtually agreed to take over the Chillicothe club on July 16. This deal was thought to be closed and President Carr in company with Dr. Stern went to Ironton.

There they witnessed the game between Chillicothe, the prospective Huntington team, and Ironton, in which Chillicothe was defeated four to one. The two men then held another conference.

Dr. Stern insisted that the season start again on Friday so that Huntington would have a chance to win the pennant and then have a dab at the post-season series between either West Virginia, Ohio or Kentucky teams. President Carr would not relent, according to Dr. Stern, and a final answer was given that Huntington would not attempt to take the club.

Dr. Stern said the Chillicothe team was weaker than he thought. He proposed to open the season anew and with a rejuvenated club start in earnest to win the pennant. He said that the chances were more than even that anyone of the three states would have to clash with another. However, as matters stand Portsmouth is fourteen games ahead and Chillicothe is in fifth place.

President Joe Carr stated last night that the league had made every concession it possibly could. He said the club would be virtually handed over to local business men. It would be free from indebtedness.

He further said, "I have taken Dr. Stern's word as final and will direct my attention elsewhere. This puts us in a bad hole. Several cities made a bid for the berth but they save up when Huntington put up such a bold front. We have not quit, however, and the league will play the rest of the schedule if it is done with four clubs. Winchester and Maysville are two prospective towns."

COLTS BEATEN IN CLOSING INNINGS

Some finish the Portsmouth team made Tuesday in the second Portsmouth-Lexington game at Lexington! Well say. The club again came from behind and scored seven large and juicy runs in the last two innings. Fans here were so jubilant over the news that they wanted to change the name of the team to the "Finishers," which, according to them, was the most fitting name for the team.

There is no denying the fact that Portsmouth has invaded Lexington's own parlor and played them off their feet. The Colts and the Lexington fans would rather have taken all four games from the Spencerites on this trip than anything they can think of. But that's baseball. Portsmouth after losing three to Charleston and two to the Natters romp in Lexington and wallop the Colts by making 14 runs in two games and hitting all of the Guyn heavies to all corners of the lot.

ANOTHER FOR NAILERS

Ironton, July 13.—The Natters beat the Babes here Tuesday in a game by the score of 4 to 2. Good pitching featured. The score:
 Chillicothe: 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 0-2 4 1
 Ironton: 0 0 0 1 1 0 2 0 3-4 6 4
 Batteries—Brookley and Deberry; De Lottelle and McBanish.

Tough One To Lose

(Lexington Herald)
 It was a tough game for Linerel to lose. Until the Portsmouth fans fell on him with violence in the ninth inning he had worked twenty-three consecutive innings without allowing a run. Mrs. Linerel, who is visiting her husband, saw him suffer his first defeat before her. She had the pleasure of seeing him take his game from Charleston recently, however, 3 to 0.

What About Games Sunday?

(Huntington Register)
 The crowd of Portsmouth fans who came up on the 12:31 train Sunday was rather small. The two defeats in a row had some effect on the feeling of the fans down there.

Walsh To "Come Back"

Chicago, July 11.—Big Ed Walsh, a veteran star pitcher of the Chicago Americans, who hasn't been started in a game for more than a year, will try to make his "come back" appearance on Friday, it was announced today.

Manager Rowland and players on the club believe that Walsh has regained his old time form after his long rest and treatment under several specialists. He will oppose the Philadelphia club in his initial appearance of the season.

The Fatal Ninth

In commenting upon the fatal ninth inning of Monday's game at Lexington, the Herald of that city said:
 Linerel was breezing through the game until the fatal ninth. Shorman walked and then Caton, the diminutive Portsmouth shortstop, drove into far center field for a single, only by fast handling by Cain. McHenry hit to left and Spencer singled in center. Shorman scored on McHenry's hit and Caton on Spencer's. The crowd took a sudden interest in the outcome of the game. Bush hit to McClennan and Jacobus, pinch hitting for Hancock, drove the ball along the right field foul line to the fence for a double, during all of which McHenry and Spencer romped home, with the tying runs. Jacobus on second and Bush on third scored when Dills also lined to left field. Dillhoefer fanned but Shorman singled, on bases when Hanna made Johnson roll in him and threw the Cobbler catcher Caton on Spencer's. The crowd took a sudden interest in the outcome of the game. Bush hit to McClennan and Jacobus, pinch hitting for Hancock, drove the ball along the right field foul line to the fence for a double, during all of which McHenry and Spencer romped home, with the tying runs. C. & O. Engineer Kicks Sandbox, Has His Right Foot Ground Off

Shelden Hanks, a well known C. & O. engineer, suffered the loss of his right foot in a singular manner in the C. & O. yards at Russell, Ky.

When something went wrong with the sand box of his engine, which was not feeding properly, it is claimed Hanks kicked it with his right foot and in some manner his foot was deflected and went under the wheel and was ground off. Hanks was removed to the C. & O. hospital in Huntington, where his foot was amputated.

Theater Closed

Donald Maguet, formerly employed at the Selby Shoe Co., but who recently resigned to accept a position of manager of a moving picture show near Milwaukee, has returned home, reporting that business was on the wane to such an extent that the owner decided to close his theater until times became better. Mr. Maguet has two offers under consideration, but will probably rest up for a couple of weeks before accepting one of them.

Hikers Are Game

Relatives of Marion Garrison and Russell Williams, the two local Boy Scouts who are walking from Portsmouth to Cleveland, received word Wednesday morning that they had reached Chillicothe, fifty miles away, at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the second day out. Both lads were a bit fatigued, but sent word that they would be on their way again Wednesday morning.

The two lads are paying their own expenses during the trip by selling music. They sold ten copies at 25 cents each in one hour at Chillicothe Tuesday afternoon.

SHIPS BEANS TO CHICAGO SO HIS WIFE MAY ENJOY GOOD MEAL

Police Officer Grant Goings shipped a bushel of green beans to Chicago Tuesday so that his wife may enjoy one of her favorite dishes during her visit in that city, she having written to him that beans are sky high in price there. She is visiting her son Aldis Goings, who is serving his apprenticeship as a boilermaker. She expects to return home July 18 and will be accompanied by the son and his wife and two children.

LITTLE BABY DRINKS IODINE

Raymond, a 2-year-old baby son of Samuel Hood, a brick-yard laborer, 1015 Eleventh street, picked up a bottle of iodine from off a table stand and drank a half ounce of the poisonous fluid Tuesday afternoon and game near dying as a result. The prompt act of the mother, who, as soon as the baby's little sister told her what he had done, rushed into B. E. Allen's grocery nearby, grabbed up a bottle of sweet milk, and administered the antidote, and probably saved the tot's life. City Physician Dr. Charles Wendelken responded to a hurry call and succeeded in bringing the child out of danger.

Petition For Paving Of Rosemount Road

LOVE IS NOT SENTIMENT TO AMUSE, SAYS SPEAKER

"Most men think that love is only a sentiment to amuse women and children," said Rev. Fred Guy Strickland in open-air meeting on Chillicothe street last night.

"But love is the law of life for strength as well as for weakness," he continued. "Just now in Europe it would appear that mere force is the law. But destructiveness brings its own downfall."

"Both Christianity and the labor movement are tainted with the fatalism of material force. To a large extent they are losing their idealism, their spirituality. Some of the labor leaders and Socialists in Europe are declaring, especially since the war began, that we must restore the spirit of Jesus."

Rev. Strickland here called attention to "International Labor Week" as reported by E. Herbert Stead in "The Survey" of June 12, and told his hearers they could consult the magazine mention in the public library of Portsmouth.

Bat And Wife Figure In Rumpus

The domestic troubles of Robt. Patterson and wife, May Patterson, colored, were aired in police court, Wednesday morning.

The couple are separated and Patterson was sentenced to the workhouse last July by Probate Judge T. C. Beatty for non-support. According to the wife he has done nothing for her since his return. He himself claimed he had been trying to do his best for her but that she was obstinate. She and little daughter visited the street fair Tuesday evening and he shadowed her. When she reached her alley home Patterson confronted her and demanded an account of herself. She did not give a satisfactory explanation and he struck her. Jake Huley and Hiram Johnson rushed to the defense, striking him across the hip with a ball bat. He whipped out a knife and is said to have not only threatened them but his wife as well. Johnson caused his arrest but failed to appear against him. The hearing was therefore continued until Thursday morning.

SLEEPING IN A COOL TENT

Lyons Questel and Howard Watkins, two East Fourth street lads, are laughing at these warm nights, as they have constructed a tent, and use it for sleeping quarters. The lads, who are very ingenious, have fitted up a telegraph line connecting with the home of a neighbor boy, so they can summon aid quickly in the event of prowlers happening around at night. They are also planning an elaborate "burglar alarm" system for their tent.

Wowie Minister Gives King Booze A Wallop

"The Sanctuary and Its Service" will be the subject at the Gallia street gospel tent tonight. "King Booze" was hard last night. Mr. Eusey's famous solar plexus punch was delivered with such dexterity and persistence that he said there is no doubt the "personal liberty" plea will again echo from the Point to the eastern hills.

The speaker said that, for a time, there may be a falling away in revenue, but even this would be overcome by industry and sobriety. The condition of Mountain View, California, was referred to as a striking example of what people can do when free from the blighting influences of the liquor traffic.

He said Mountain View, having a population of two thousand, voted out its seven saloons and decided to test the resourcefulness of its citizens in running the municipality without the liquor revenue, and time has proved that their vision of prosperity without "booze" is a reality as the following figures will show.

"The seven saloons paid an annual license of $2,100 and when the town went 'dry' the liquor men withdrew $19,000 from the bank, and then the 'booze-busters' foresaw disaster ahead. One saloon keeper had a funeral in his 'wet goods dispensary' and invited his customers to attend. The coffin was labeled: 'Mountain View Is Dead.'"

"Time has proved, however, that Mountain View is very much alive to the interests of her citizens, as the building permits for the following year show new buildings erected at a cost of $118,000 and instead of having one bank as formerly they now have two."

"When the town went 'dry' $19,000 was withdrawn from the bank, but the following year showed that $10,000 more than the previous year had been placed on deposit, and that men long drunk into debt on account of liquor were now able to pay their debts. Mountain View is a striking example of thrift that others could with much profit consistently imitate."

"Shakespeare, for once at a loss for a word proposed to call the spirit of wine 'devil,' but it is entitled to no such honor—it is no prince of darkness, it is no prince of anything. It is the crowning of human industry; it is the laus of human liberty; it is the San Jose scale upon the orange trees of youthful ambition; it is the centurion, the Hessian fly, the caterpillar, the locust."

JOHN LINCK NAMED AS NEW SAFETY DIRECTOR

Will Take Active Charge On Monday

Following a half hour's conference Wednesday afternoon, Mayor Adam Frick appointed John Linck as director of public safety to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Jos. Lake, who resigned recently.

Mr. Linck at once took the oath of office, but prefers that Dr. Lake remain on the job until next Monday so that he might have time to arrange his own private business affairs. He was escorted to the safety director's office and introduced as the new head of the department.

Mr. Linck's name was among the original list considered for the office from the start, and when the subject was first broached to him two days ago, agreed to consider it, and the conference for Wednesday afternoon was arranged for. He held out for absolute free rein in the conduct of the department, and when assured he would be given full control he accepted the position.

When asked by the Times what action he would take with regard to reinstating the dismissed twelve student nurses of Hempstead hospital, he said evasively: "We will not burn any bridges until we get to them."

The mayor, however, said: "We will be governed absolutely by the statutes. We are acting on and trusting to the judgment of the legal department of the city. But in the event we must take back the nurses they will be taken back under the rules of the department. We expect to operate the hospital with a reduced number, or six instead of twelve, for we had too many before."

The new director needs no introduction to the Portsmouth public. A life-long citizen of a well-known and respected German family, he stands well in the community. He has been in the barber business for many years, conducting a shop on Gallia street, and is known for his honesty and square dealing. He is a staunch Democrat and has been honored by his party in different ways. He made a good race for council a few years ago, being defeated only by a narrow margin by Judge George M. Osborn, and has for many years served with credit as a member of the city board of health. He is prominent in German fraternal circles, for years filling grand lodge offices of the Order of Harugari and always taking an active lead in local German society affairs. Of affable manner, he makes friends with all who come in contact with him. His appointment is conceded by persons generally, irrespective of party affiliation, as a splendid one.

Mr. Linck has for some time past had a desire to take a more active part in municipal affairs, and the opportunity presented itself when the above office was offered to him. He has always been a staunch sympathizer and supporter of the present administration.

SI STRAUS CLOSES DEAL FOR THE LONDON SHOP

Through a deal closed Wednesday afternoon Si Straus, who until a few days ago, was president of the Goodman-Straus Company operating the Salvage store on Chillicothe street, purchased Edward Thomson's interest in the London Shop on Chillicothe.

Coupled with the announcement was the news that Mr. Straus had secured a six year's lease on the room, which is owned by Anton Maiter and that a 40 foot addition would be added to the building, doubling the present floor space of the room.

Mr. Straus will handle a complete line of clothing, furnishings and men's, boys' and children's shoes and expects to have his new store ready for business early in September. The stock owned by Mr. Thomson will be sacrificed at a big sale, which Mr. Straus will start soon.

Charles McCormick will continue his shoe business in the same room and he will make some extensive improvements in his portion of the Maiter building.

Mr. Straus is one of the city's best known business men and his legion of friends will be pleased to learn that he is back in business again. He plans to open a complete clothing and shoe store and feels sanguine that he will receive his share of local patronage in these lines.

The deal had been hanging fire for several days and was not definitely closed until this afternoon. The location is one of the best in the city and Mr. Straus will open a retail store that will be strictly first class in every detail. The same successful methods he pursued to build up the Salvage store will be employed by Mr. Straus in his new location.

GOOD ROADS MEETING TO BE HELD FRIDAY MORNING

A Good Roads meeting to boost improvement of "The Scioto Trail," and to give impetus to the good roads movement in general, will be held Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock, in the Columbia Theater, Manager F. N. Tynes having donated the use of the theater. G. F. Rudisill, a representative of the Ohio Good Roads Association, will be present to address the meeting, and the Board of Trade, under whose auspices the meeting will be held, hopes that a representative crowd of citizens will be present.

Everyone interested in good roads is not only invited, but urged to be present, and help to show that Scioto county is alive.

Wife Given Custody Of Child By Judge

Some time ago, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mowery of this city separated, the wife returning to Huntington and the husband going to his mother's home on Eighth St. Mr. Mowery also kept the custody of the four year old boy, Cecil.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Mowery came down from Huntington to visit the child and was denied admission to the house by her husband's mother, she claims. She filed an affidavit in juvenile court, alleging that her child did not have a proper home.

Judge Beatty conducted a hearing Wednesday morning, and announced afterward that the evidence showed that Mowery was keeping company with another woman, whom he intended to wed as soon as he could secure a divorce. The court also found that he was addicted to the use of liquor and mistreated his wife, according to his deposition.

Judge Beatty accordingly gave the wife the custody of the boy, and she returned with it to Huntington Wednesday at noon.

"Wrench" Man Ready

William Gergens, director of public service, announces that his official "wrench man," George Sponler, will be abroad Thursday turning off the water supply of delinquents.

THOSE PUMPS AGAIN

Both low duty pumps at the new city pumping station were again out of commission Wednesday but one of the low duty pumps is expected to be in service by this evening. There is nine feet of water in the reservoir which is regarded as a supply sufficient to last for two and one-half days.

LEFT $50 IN CASH, $180 RING AND $100 WATCH ON BANK DESK

Last Monday afternoon, Judge Beatty had occasion to visit the First National Bank. Upon leaving the desk, he failed to pick up his purse, containing $50 in cash, a $180 diamond ring and a $100 gold watch. He never missed his purse until he started to go home from his office that evening.

He hurried to the bank, and was rejoiced to find that the purse had been found by one of the bank patrons, and given to Daniel Curry, the cashier, for safekeeping. He recovered his valuables, and invested in two boxes of El Versos as a treat for the bank employees and the finder. The ring and watch did not belong to him.

PLUMBERS' SUIT OPENS IN THE LOCAL COURT

Rapid headway was made in the trial of the injunction and dissolution suit of the Master Plumbers of the city against the Building Trades Council, its auxiliary organizations and officers, which opened this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock before Judge Tarbell of Georgetown.

Admission by Attorney Edgar Miller for the defendants of the material facts contained in the first sixteen paragraphs of the petition of the plaintiffs made unnecessary the introduction of a great amount of testimony.

Among the facts admitted were the existence of the Building Trades Council and the seven auxiliary organizations of which it is the parent body, the names of the various officers and of the officers who fill them, the meeting place at 426 Chillicothe street, the existence of constitutions and by-laws of all of them, copies of which were introduced as evidence, and the adherence of the members to the provisions of the agreement entered into by the plaintiffs and defendants two years ago.

In short, Mr. Miller admitted everything except that the organizations were unlawful and illegal and that coercion, intimidation, and threats were employed by the defendants to harass the plaintiffs and cause them injury. From early indications, the legal battle will be fought largely on those issues.

This arrangement enabled the plaintiffs' attorney, Judge A. Z. Blair, to call the first witness shortly after two o'clock. He was Harry Strong, business agent of the Building Trades Council, and one of the defendants, who was examined at length concerning his duties.

The hearing opened with the argument of a demurrer to the answer of the defendants, filed with the court by Attorney Miller, by Judge Blair, who contended that the first defense of answer was in fact an admission of all the allegations of the plaintiffs, since it contained nothing but a denial that the defendants were doing anything unlawful or illegal.

Judge Tarbell overruled the demurrer without permitting Judge Blair to conclude his argument, saying that since the matter was to be heard before the court, and not before a jury, he would proceed with the hearing on the merits of the case, and take up Judge Blair's argument in favor of the demurrer later.

Judge Blair proceeded far enough with the argument against the second defense to state that the plaintiffs expected to prove that the contract alleged to have been entered into two years ago between the master and journeymen plumbers was unlawful, illegal, and against public policy, adding that a contract is not binding unless entered into between the employers and the individual employees.

The court then read the first sixteen paragraphs of the petition covering nine type-written pages, the material facts in which as outlined above, were admitted by the defense. Judge Tarbell dictated a statement, setting forth that the admission of facts together with the additional written and oral testimony that would be submitted later would form the basis for the court to decide.

In addressing the counsel Judge Tarbell said that it was not a pleasant task to come to Portsmouth to hear a case like the one he was hearing, but that he had no disposition to dodge the responsibility. He urged the attorneys to adhere to plain facts in their evidence and argument, stating that he did not propose to be influenced in the slightest degree either way by passion or sentiment.

Mr. Strong was still on the stand at press time.

Harry Strong's early testimony was in strict accordance with the by-laws in the possession of the court. He was frequently interrogated by the court to explain those duties.

In substance he stated that his work was to see that all work on which the members are employed was fair, that is, that no non-union men were employed on it, to make decisions regarding the jurisdiction of each craft in doing work, and to call men off the work if necessary.

In reply to Judge Blair, he deplored that he had ever called men off the work when it was not necessary. The council stood for two things, he said, either non-union work all the way through, or union work all the way through.

In reply to questions from the court and Judge Blair, he said that union men would not work on jobs where non-union men had been or were employed except in some instances when the contract or would sign an agreement to abide by the union scale and employ nothing but union labor thereafter.

THAW JUBILANT, MAY KNOW FATE TONIGHT

New York, July 14—Harry K. Thaw may know by tonight whether he is to be set free as the outcome of his nine years fight to prove that he is sane, or whether he is to be sent back to the Matteawan asylum as insane. Apparently confident that his long fight for liberty was about to end in success, Thaw was jubilant. The state had closed his case and there remained only the submission of rebuttal evidence, which it was announced would occupy only a few minutes, the argument of the attorneys and Justice Hendrick's charge to the jury. Counsel believed that the case would be in the hands of the jury by the afternoon and that a verdict would be rendered before night.

WRIGHT AND MAXIM SAY THEY WILL SERVE

New York, July 14—Orville Wright, who was among those suggested to Secretary Daniels as possible members of the proposed civilian advisory board of inventors and technical experts, was quoted here today as saying he would accept membership in the board if invited. He said that he had not as yet received such an invitation. "I have had talks with Thomas A. Edison and with army and navy officers who realize the necessity of preparing an adequate air as well as sea fleet," said Mr. Wright. "Army and navy officers agree that we should have from a thousand to thirteen hundred aeroplanes for immediate duty. The board undoubtedly will be a great thing if the members will stick to its advisory function and not try to overstep it. The officers of the army and navy are very efficient and some of them are wonderful engineers. There is no doubt that they know what they are doing. I do not think an outsider should tell them what to do and how to do it. The work of the proposed board should be confined to suggestions."

Other Experts Will Aid Naval Board

Washington, July 14—Gossip continued here today as to the makeup of the proposed civilian advisory board of inventors and technical experts, as proposed by Secretary Daniels to assist in working out naval problems. The only selection thus far announced is Thomas A. Edison, who will head the board. The names of a score or more of possible new members of the advisory council, many of them recognized experts in special lines of inventive and research work, are under consideration, but Secretary Daniels said that he would not announce the selections until after their acceptances had been received.

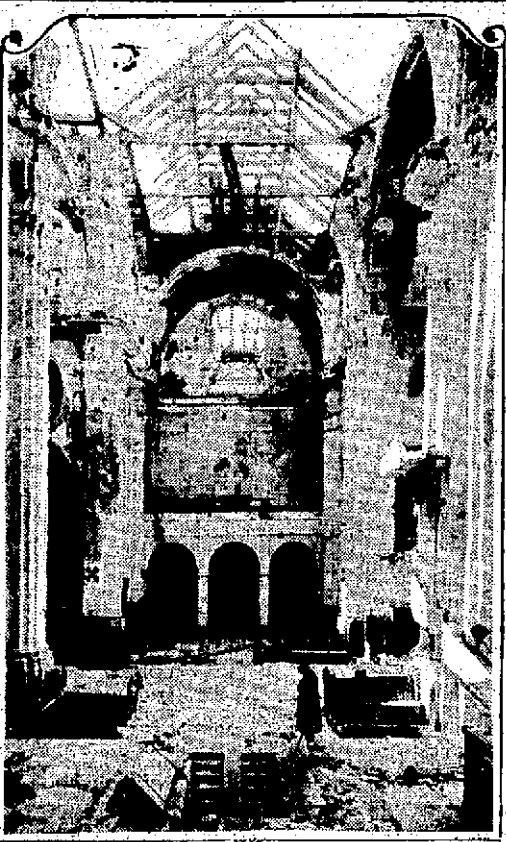

Claim Garrison's Appointment Illegal

Toledo, July 14—Appointment by Secretary of State Hildebrandt of Attorney Raymond T. Garrison as a republican member of the Lucas county election board was repudiated at a meeting of the county central committee held last night for the purpose of endorsing a candidate for the position. Frank Baird, former state oil inspector, was endorsed. The Baird faction claim Garrison's appointment was illegal. A court injunction restrains Garrison from acting as a member of the election board. The legality of Garrison's appointment, it is claimed, will eventually be decided by a court. An echo of the state Schuchert Governor Willis on one side and Secretary of State Hildebrandt, Attorney General Turner and Chairman Jones on the other, was heard when Otto Hankison, Willis representative in Northwest Ohio, voted for Baird.

REPORTS TO HOLD ELKS' ATTENTION

Los Angeles, July 14—Distribution of reports to various committees comprised today the business of the Grand Lodge session of the second day of the re-union of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. The report of state organizations was to be made a special order at the afternoon session.

CHICAGO SEES FIRST LABOR PEACE IN YEARS

Chicago, July 14—Complete labor peace in Chicago was in prospect today for the first time in years with the announcement that painters and metal workers, who have been on a strike for more than two months, had agreed to arbitrate. More than 10,000 union painters will be affected by a settlement. The striking metal workers also are expected to agree to arbitration of the wage controversy. Employers and labor leaders are of the opinion that labor peace in Chicago promising to be lasting as a result of recent successes in arbitration in the street-car men's strike and carpenters' strike.

Sun Shines Twenty Hours Daily Here

Juneau, Alaska, July 14—Extreme heat during the last ten days has caused weather conditions here unknown to the oldest inhabitants of Southeastern Alaska. The weather bureau thermometer has registered as high as 90 degrees in the shade and the 100 degree mark has been reached by street thermometers. Forest fires are raging along Lynn. This time of the year, the sun shines twenty of the twenty-four hours each day and to absence of the usual southwest winds is attributed the excessive heat. Fruits and vegetables give indications of bumper crops.

IS RECOMMENDED FOR ARMY COMMISSION

Columbus, July 14—Lieutenant Everett C. Williams, of Battery A, first battalion of field artillery, Cleveland, passed the course of instruction for artillery officers at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, with such high honors that besides being given a certificate of graduation, he was also recommended for a commission in the regular army. This announcement was made here today by Major H. M. Bush.

REVOLT IN CHINA IS FEARED

Washington, July 14—Evidence of revolutionary plots in China are indicated in unofficial advices to the state department from Canton which told of the finding of bombs on two occasions near there during the past six weeks. On June third soldiers raided a house in Canton where they discovered two bombs and a lot of suspicious correspondence. Two arrests were made. On May 27, according to the same advices, "a tin containing ten bombs and some revolutionary letters of appointment, badges, etc., was found by the police outside a cottage in Honan." The five occupants of the cottage were arrested.

MAKES NEW MARK FOR AUTO TRIP

New York, July 14—Friends of E. C. Patterson, a publisher of this city, claimed today that Mr. Patterson had set a new record for an automobile between New York and Chicago of 35 hours and 43 minutes. The best previous time made by relay drivers was said to be a trifle more than 39 hours. Mr. Patterson made the same run last week in 41 hours and 17 minutes.

BASEBALL WEEKLY SUSPENDS

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 14—The Baseball World, a weekly publication, which was alleged to have conducted baseball pools throughout the country, suspended publication yesterday. John J. Kilgus, the publisher, was absent from the city, but others identified with the publication declared that the activity of the police of Chicago, New York and other cities had ruined their business and it was impossible further to pay big prizes and make money.

SALTILLO CAPTURED

San Antonio, Texas, July 14.—Capture of Saltillo, Mexico, was claimed in a message from Nuevo Laredo, received at the Carranza consulate here early today. Details were lacking and no mention was made of the casualties on either side nor prisoners taken.

Autos Stolen

The record for reports on stolen automobiles was broken at police headquarters yesterday. Exactly nine post cards from various cities told of the theft of automobiles. Two each were stolen in two of the cities. Not a day passes but what the police receive cards announcing rewards for the recovery of stolen machines.

WILSON WILL LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON TO DISCUSS NOTE SOON

Washington, July 14—Pending the return of President Wilson from Cornish, N. H., it was believed here today there would be no further developments in the situation that has arisen between Germany and the United States over German submarine warfare. Just when the president would return to take up with his cabinet the latest German note was not definitely known, but the president, in a dispatch to Secretary Tamm, said that he would be here soon. The supposition is that he will be in Washington the last of the week. The president's telegram was given out as a White House statement and ended rumors concerning his attitude toward the German reply. It indicated that the president had reached no decision as to the policy of the government and it is believed to have been called forth by statements that he already had made up his mind and that he did not view the situation as seriously as some of his advisers. The statement said the president was giving the German note his closest attention, keeping constantly in touch with Secretary Lansing, and that as soon as both had maturely considered the situation, the president would return personally to discuss it with Mr. Lansing and the cabinet, after which there would be prompt an announcement as possible of the purposes of the government. It was originally President Wilson's intention to summon Secretary Lansing to Cornish, but the plan has been given up. Secretary Lansing and other cabinet members continued to view the situation as grave, but gave no hint as to how the problem should be met.

DRUGLESS HEALERS TO PASS EXAMINATION

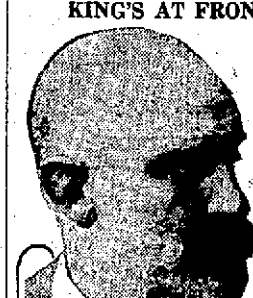

Columbus, July 14.—Application blanks for drugless healers whose practice is legalized by the Platt-Ellis law, were ready at the office of the state medical board today. Dr. George H. Mulson, secretary of the board, announced that the applications may be filed any time before October 1, although the board will be free to act on them after August 1, when the law goes into effect. Several thousand applications are expected and all will have to pass examinations before being licensed. The law applies to chiropractors, psychotherapists, neuropaths, naturopaths, hydropaths, mechanotherapists, electrotherapists, masseurs, chiropodists and all other drugless healers, excepting religious cults. Nurses, who will be registered under the new Sprague bill, may secure application forms some time next week, Dr. Mulson announced. Hospital authorities are displaying great interest in the law he said.

Shriners To Elect Officers Today

Seattle Wash., July 14.—The election of officers promised to be the feature of today's session of the forty-first annual council of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. Interest in the contest for the Imperial Outer Guard was heightened by the entrance into the race of D. C. O'Flaherty, Past Potentate of Acacia Temple, Richmond, Virginia, who took third place at the Atlantic City.

LEXINGTON AGAIN DEFEATED BY PORTSMOUTH

Spencerites Made Seven Runs in Last Two Joyful Rounds

Lexington, Kentucky, July 14.

By making seven runs in the final two innings of the Portsmouth-Lexington game here Tuesday, the leaders won out over the Colts by a score of 8 to 3 and thereby further increased its lead over Manager Howard Guyn's team.

Up to the seventh inning it looked like a victory for Lexington as the team was leading 3 to 1. Portsmouth got very busy in the eighth by scoring four runs and then led the game when three more were scored.

By winning the first two games here the Portsmouth team is shot full of pepper and the Colts will do well to cop one of the remaining two games. Portsmouth's hitting has been a big factor in the team's victories here, their hits coming just when the pathways were crowded. The score:

It was a tough game for Lexington to lose. The Portsmouth team had been on a roll since the first game, and they were looking for a victory in this one. The game was a close one, with Portsmouth leading 3 to 1 in the seventh inning. But in the eighth, Portsmouth scored four runs, and in the ninth, they scored three more. The final score was 8 to 3 in favor of Portsmouth.

What About Games Sunday? (Ironton Register) The crowd of Portsmouth fans who came up on the 12:31 train Sunday was rather small. The two defeats in a row had some effect on the feeling of the fans down there.

HERE IS FINE MATCH New York, July 13.—John Dumbell and Jack Britton were matched today to meet in a 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden on July 29. Britton agrees to make 123 pounds, while Dumbell, details of the match will be made tomorrow when forfeits of $500 each will be posted by the managers of the boxers, Dan Morgan acting for Britton and Scotty Montz for Dumbell.

Knuff maintains that he is with the Feds, but it would seem from the latest dope that the Feds are not with him.

Hitting .230 Johnny Shewlin, he of the curly locks and the funny, downy disposition is hitting at a .230 clip for the Columbus Senators. Last year the ex-Babe was one of the leading swat artists in the Ohio State league. He has been up 209 times and has made 48 hits.

Team Drawing Big Crowds The Brooklyn team of the National League is certainly drawing great crowds this season. It played to more than 55,000 paid admissions last week. Oh yes, baseball is dead.

They Want The Old Kaie Bonny Knuff and Tom Seaton are no longer wards of the Federal. According to their side of the story the Feds would not catch up enough money to repay them for their strenuous efforts under a July arm. Knuff maintains that he is with the Feds, but it would seem from the latest dope that the Feds are not with him.

Huntington Will Not Get Franchise In O. S.

Huntington will not enter the Ohio State league at least not this season according to a statement made here last night by President Joe Carr. The Chillicothe franchise may be placed in either Winchester, Ky., or Findlay, O., but no definite announcement along this line has been made. Relative to Huntington's refusal to enter the league the Herald Dispatch of that city Wednesday morning said:

Huntington's baseball dream faded quickly last night when Dr. H. Stern announced that he and President Joe Carr, of the Ohio State league, had failed to agree on a split season commencing July 15. The announcement came as a surprise as the directors of the Huntington Amusement company met with Mr. Carr yesterday morning and virtually agreed to take over the Chillicothe club on July 16. The deal was thought to be closed and President Carr in company with Dr. Stern went to Findlay.

There they witnessed the game between Chillicothe, the prospective Huntington team, and Findlay, in which Chillicothe was defeated four to one. The two men then held another conference.

Dr. Stern insisted that the season start now on Friday so that Huntington would have a chance to win the pennant and then have a dab at the post-season series between either West Virginia, Ohio or Kentucky teams.

President Joe Carr stated last night that the league had made every concession it possibly could. He said the club would be virtually handed over to local business men. It would be free from localities.

He further said, "I have taken Dr. Stern's word as final and will direct my attention elsewhere. This puts us in a bad hole. Several elites made a bid for the berth but they gave up when Huntington put up such a bold front. We have not quit, however, and the league will play the rest of the schedule if it is done with four clubs. Winchester and Maysville are two prospective towns."

Big Auto Race Chicago, July 13.—The fall automobile race meeting, originally scheduled for the new speedway on September 18, has been set back to October 16. It is announced today. The race will be over a distance of 350 miles and for a $25,000 purse.

The Fatal Ninth In commenting upon the fatal ninth inning of Monday's game at Lexington the Herald of that city said: Lingrel was breezing through the game until the fatal ninth. Shannon walked and then Caton, the diminutive Portsmouth shortstop, drove him far center field for a single, only by fast handling by Cain. McHenry hit to left and Spencer singled to center. Shannon scoring on McHenry's hit and Caton on Spencer's. The crowd took a sudden interest in the outcome of the game. Bush hit to McClellan and Jacobus, pinch hitting for Hancock, drove the ball along the right field foul line to the fence for a double, during all of which McHenry and Spencer roamed home, with the tying runs. Jacobus on second and Bush on third scored when Dills also hustled to left field. Dillhoefer fanned but Shannon singled, but died on bases when Hanna made Johnson roll to him and threw the Clobberer catcher out at first.

Will Play Rarden The Steel Plant team will go to Rarden Sunday to play a return game with that club. These teams met last Sunday in Millbrook park and the verdict went to the Steelmakers 3 to 2. Rarden is baseball crazy and the game will no doubt attract many fans from all round that village.

Brooklyn Club Is Stopped By Reds The Reds stopped the fast climbing Brooklyn team Tuesday, the score being 3 to 1. Schneider pitched in brilliant form. The score:

COLTS BEATEN IN CLOSING INNINGS

Some finish the Portsmouth team made Tuesday in the second Portsmouth-Lexington game at Lexington. We'll say. The club again came from behind and scored seven large and juicy runs in the last two innings. Fans here were so jubilant over the news that they wanted to change the name of the team to the "Finishers," which, according to their work of the past few days, would be quite appropriate.

There is no denying the fact that Portsmouth has invaded Lexington's own parlor and played them off their feet. The Colts and the Lexington fans would rather have taken all four games from the Spencerites on this trip than anything they can think of. But that's baseball. Portsmouth, after losing three to Charleston and two to the Nautlers romp in Lexington and waiting the Colts by making 11 runs in two games and hitting all of the Guyn leavers to all corners of the lot.

Walsh To "Come Back" Chicago, July 14.—Big Ed Walsh, a veteran star pitcher of the Chicago Americans, who hasn't been started in a game for more than a year, will try to make his "come back" appearance on Friday, it was announced today. Manager Rowland and players on the club believe that Walsh has regained his old time form after his long rest and treatment under several specialists. He will oppose the Philadelphia club in his initial appearance of the season.

MISSED SAD PORTION

(Lexington Herald) Fans who left the park at the end of the eighth inning thinking Lexington had won the game, 3 to 6 Monday will be surprised and disappointed to learn of the numerous fatalities which befall the team after their departure. They missed the sad portion of the game, however, and were spared the heart-breaking finish which accompanied it.

Jacobus delivered royally in the ninth when he was called on to bat for the Colts. His long throw to Jones in the right garden drove in the tying and winning runs of the game. He saved himself, though the run had no result on the game.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid. Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food for fermentation. Thus everything eaten soon in the stomach much like garbage; soon in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food, or have heartburn, flatulence, water brash or nausea. He tells us to try aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescent and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first day, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and soda. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

VALERIE KAPOLD AND HARRY E. TAYLOR, Editors.
GEORGE M. TAYLOR, Managing Editor.

A HALF CENTURY OF ANTISEPTIC SURGERY.

(Journal of American Medical Association.)

Few persons now living can recall the horrors of hospitals and surgical operations before the development of modern surgery. As a recent writer says:

"There were the almost inevitable suppuration of the wound, the putrefaction and sloughing off of tissue, the sickening odor, the high fever, the danger of hemorrhage, the slow healing, the complications of blood poisoning, erysipelas, gangrene and tetanus, the physical and mental anguish, and the uncertainty of the final outcome. The mortality from major operations was from 50 to 100 per cent."

Today, the opening of the abdomen, the chest or the skull no longer is equivalent to signing the death warrant of the patient. Pasteur proved that fermentation and putrefaction were neither spontaneous, on the one hand, nor due to occult causes, on the other, but are in reality the result of minute living organisms. Among the fruits of Pasteur's labors was the work of Joseph Lister.

Antiseptic surgery had its birth in 1867, when Lister reported, in the London Lancet, eleven cases of compound fracture which recovered without infection or amputation. He had furnished the first solution of the problem of how to prevent putrefaction in open wounds. His first case, in March, 1865, failed; his next case, in August, was successful.

Half a century has elapsed since those memorable experiences. The wonderful strides which surgery has made during these years are fresh in our minds. The work of the surgeon is not confined to the repair of wounds, the correction of deformities, or the removal of tissues. Deficiencies may be supplied by transplantation; transfusion is readily carried out; a new era in reconstructive surgery has been inaugurated. There is no reason to believe that the end of these progressive advances in surgery in recent years is in sight. As a recent writer has remarked, surgery is no longer merely an art of skillful cutting and sewing; it has risen to the higher level of a science.

The principles defended and applied by Lister find applications in everyday life of the hands of the layman; their value is further attested in the prominence which they play in the modern military regime. The soldier on the European battlefields has been taught to apply an antiseptic dressing promptly to the wound he has received in action, and the enlightened teachings of Lister follow him through all the subsequent stages of his treatment to recovery. After a lapse of fifty years, says the Journal of the American Medical Association, we may well pause to recall that Lister was instrumental in saving more lives than the armies of the greatest general or potentate have destroyed.

NOT THE YEAR FOR THEM.

The referendum proposal on the civil service law, curiously enough propagated by Republican politicians on a rank failure of their legislature to devise a law that would turn the rascals out, has died a-borning. Along with it have already gone the other proposals to repeal the coal screen law and the agricultural commission act, while the gerrymander seems to be wobbling to a collapse.

The whole lesson of it is that the people have gotten sick and tired of making laws by vote and the referendum is a rank and dismal failure.

In this connection there is gathering force a proposition that the voters ought to be willing to settle right away and finally, and that is an amendment to the constitution, that will prohibit the re-submission until the lapse of six years since its defeat. As the rule now stands there is nothing to prevent the re-submission of a defeated issue year after year, making a perennial annoyance and disturbance. If "the voice of the people" means anything it ought to be so accepted. But there is no such acceptance under present arrangement. An amendment is beaten by the tens of thousands and blithely those who thrive on contentions and campaigns get up another submission and the work thereof goes on eternally. It all makes for an unsettled and unwholesome condition and the total effect is to make a mockery of popular government.

The N. & W. began, yesterday, tearing down the present passenger station at McDermott and soon, as our voracious reporters say, will begin the erection of a new station, commodious and up-to-date. But here it is with better than half of 1915 gone by a half month, and again we rise to remark that so far this year the Peerless has not got the annual promise of a new station—next year.

The old time gangsters are running around in concentric circles, yawning "we must get together on a candidate for mayor." But they don't condescend for a minute and the chief reason why is that they have got no real leader big enough to bare his noble breast to the storm that will arise from the four others the moment the one is united on.

The fellows who were so dead sure Bryan wanted to disrupt the Democratic party with his resignation pay him a mighty, but insincere compliment. They haven't a word for his declaration to speak for any party, except the Democratic. His ideas may sometimes run awry and his tongue out of harness, but his heart is all right.

The one thing apparent in the Mexican war news is that Villa's transportable bath tub keeps steadily on the job of its disreputable work. He hasn't won so much as a skirmish since he brought it into camp.

IF THIS AINT LUCK

GOOD BYE, CHILLICOTHE.

And so Chillicothe has gone into the discard. The richest, sportiest, gamiest town in the state has had to toss up the sponge and admit that she could not support a base ball club. We are sorry for Chillicothe, sorry for more reasons than one. For instance we shall miss that peculiar pleasure that came from the certainty that we would always win from Chillicothe's ball team when our team met it on the diamond. And then, of course, we shall miss that usual and certain addition that always came to our bank account due to the sublime faith possessed by one answering to the given name of Oscar, of Chillicothe, in the ability of the Bubs to trim Portsmouth to a frazzle. Not that we favor or believe in games of chance of any sort. Far from it. There was no chance in our little arrangement with Oscar. It was just a case of Oscar deciding how much of the coin of the realm he felt like transferring to our pockets and of course there was no offense against the law, moral or statutory, in one man handing over money to another, so long as the transferee was cheerful about it and the transferee was perfectly willing to help the thing along.

Yes, we shall miss Chillicothe in the League; we hope that some day she will come back; and we hope that Oscar's faith in the winning powers of the team will continue as firm and solid as that rock of Gibraltar that shines out so alluringly in the insurance ads.

Even the stock markets refuse to take on any alarm over Germany's latest note. Which is just saying that all people and all things realize Woodrow Wilson is in the presidential chair.

It ought to be remarked that at least in one respect do all the belligerents show exhaustion. They have quit for the present their robust and jocund lying.

It is true that when you once get into a bad habit it hangs on to you. Just look how that safely directorship is clinging about the portly form of "Doc" Lake. He had to throw the thing up publicly twice before he could get the mayor to take hold, and now the executive doesn't seem able to wish it off on anyone else.

Out in Illinois so dead has the theatrical business gone that they are turning "the grand opera houses" into garages.

If Ohio doesn't beat the world on corn, this year, then say we don't know a nubbins' of any sort when we see it.

Sketches of Life
NEW YORK
By M. J. M. M.

New York, July 14.—Montgomery Halliwell, of the Times, was on his way home from work early the other morning when he saw two wobbly, silk-battled wanderers slowly emerge from the side entrance of one of the famous all night cafes in the Forties.

When they held on to each other they were by practicing the art of the equilibrist able to navigate slowly, but when they let go of each other they fell in a heap. After making their way along for a half block they suddenly let go and both fell prostrate.

Remaining motionless for a few minutes, one raised himself to his elbow and pleaded: "Bill come on over here and help me!"

"Flatterer!" was the muffled reply.

Park Row hears that Percy Hammond, dramatic critic of the Chicago Tribune, is to come to the New York Tribune in a similar capacity in the fall. Since Hector Turnbull quit dramatic editing on the Tribune to write moving picture scenarios in California, that paper has been without a regular critic.

And now we have wrestling in the cabarets! As if the struggle holds in modern dances were not enough for jaded New Yorkers and out of town folk' bouts are now on the bill at several roof garden dancing places.

Thirty minutes of wrestling is interspersed with exhibition dancing and followed by general frolic; trotting and hesitating. It is sometimes difficult to tell which is the more strenuous—the wrestling or the dancing. There is this difference, however: The wrestlers are paid.

Is there a Thaw jinx? Is there a subtle and mysterious influence which pervades the atmosphere about Harry Thaw and renders those who associate with him more liable to misfortune?

The question has been revived by the failure of Deputy Attorney General Franklin Kennedy to appear in the Thaw trial. He knows more about the case than any other man aside from Jerome and he is now able to be the chief prosecutor owing to a complete nervous collapse.

In the trail of the so-called Thaw jinx are death, prison terms, loss of positions, attempts at suicide, insanity and disgrace. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw declares she is a victim of the jinx. Dan O'Reilly, once the most popular criminal lawyer in town, was the first Thaw lawyer to go down in disgrace. He served a term, was disbarred and subsequently died of a broken heart. He was a big, scruffy Broadway favorite, Clifford W. Harbridge, a promising young lawyer, was disbarred.

John N. Anhalt, on the eve of his betrothal, was sent to prison for trying to bribe Mattheau authorities to free Thaw and there are a lot of others who have suffered after identifying themselves with Thaw's case.

Critics, with as Tad says nothing on their minds but their hats, are complaining about the "Graveyard Luncheon" in St. Paul's cemetery in the downtown business district. Young girls and young men employed in offices congregate there at midday and eat their lunches. At night young lovers stroll through the dreary churchyard but there never has been any vandalism in the old place.

It is a beautiful green yard in the heart of a seething district and if the young men and young women can rest tired bodies and brighten weary minds in the oasis of the quietness and peace it would seem that people who have so much other work to do could at least attend to their own affairs.

The New York Sun has deserted its little brick home on Park Row and moved into its new home in the American Trust Society Building at Nassau and Spruce streets.

Opportunities

No other name
To Burbank's fame
Could ever hold a candle,
If that wise gent
Would but invent
A melon with a handle.

Ah, ah, his worth
Would know no dearth,
But stay forever vernal
If he could make
A cob and shake.
If free from every kernel.

His fame, I'm sure,
Would be secure
If he were only growing
A rooster smart
That wouldn't start
At 3 a. m. a-crow-ing.

O Skeet, Where is Thy Sting?

The editor of one of the Michigan exchanges is a public benefactor and when he dies the people of his community ought to erect a monument to the honor of his memory. He has discovered a new way to get rid of mosquitoes. He tells you simply to rub alum on your face and hands. When the mosquito takes a bite it puckers his gazopipe so he can't sting. Then he sits down in a damp place, tries to dig the puckered loose, catches a good hard cold and finally dies of pneumonia.

Chillicothe has dropped out of the Ohio League. Why not turn over the wandering franchise to the Cincinnati Reds? They would fit in nicely and it is a tolerable safe guess the once Queen City would support a team that would win a reasonable percentage of its games.

There might, of course, be more rain, but that would leave the skies pumped completely dry.

Victories in Mexican wars are no great shakes, so Carranza plays a mighty poor second when all his victories are lies.

Chief Wants Cool,
Shirt-Sleeved Police

Police Chief McCarty is in favor of permitting patrolmen to move about in shirt sleeves during the hot weather period and is thinking of taking up the matter with the department officials. The chief can see no reason why officers should not be allowed to enjoy comfort the same as other people and can see no harm in officers discarding their heavy coats and wearing blue shirts. Besides he holds that coats in summer time place officers at a disadvantage in dealing with fellows who resist arrest. "Why I know that I myself am better again without any coat to interfere with the free action of my arms," said he.

COUNCIL ASSURES FLOOD WALL EXTENSION

$70,000 Bond Issue For Flood Defense

Flood Wall Facts

Bond issue of $70,000 authorized to extend wall from Chillicothe street to Offene street.

Revised estimate of city engineer for projected improvement, $86,500. Original estimate $60,000.

Route chosen: South from Front and Chillicothe streets to Mill street, east on Mill to Union street, south to Wheeling street, east to Offene street, north on Offene to alley between Second and Third streets.

Openings in wall: Chillicothe street, Bond street, Union street, Offene street and Jackson street.

Steps required: Await expiration of 30 day initiative and referendum limit; sale of bonds; final approval of plans and authorization of advertising of bids and awarding of contract.

Probable time when actual work will be started: October 1, 1915.

Territory that will be protected by new wall: All territory that lies north of Mill and Wheeling streets between Chillicothe and Offene streets.

Remaining section to complete city's Ohio river defenses and which will probably be built next year: East from Offene past the Dawson, Barton and Kelley homes along ridge to and across Funk's Gut to golf grounds, connecting there with elevated N. & W. tracks.

Territory unprotected by new wall just authorized: Jackson street, Harmon street, lower Broadway and lower Campbell avenue. Broadway flood embankment protects greater part of East End against 61 1/2 ft. flood stage.

First flood wall built by city, started in 1908 and completed in 1909 at a cost of $38,000. Built by City Engineer J. I. Hudson, assisted by George S. Wilhelm, present city engineer. Considered one of the most substantial structures of its kind in the world, having the strength of the best of reservoir walls. Has withstood several floods without slightest effect upon it.

The first definite move towards making possible the extension of the city's flood wall from its present terminus, Front and Chillicothe streets, to the east side of Offene street, with a wing or cross wall north on Offene to Third street, was begun by city council at an adjourned meeting Tuesday evening when the southern route jointly recommended by the council street committee and the city board of control and the tentative plans and estimate of the city engineer were approved and the city solicitor directed to prepare legislation for a bond issue of $70,000 for that purpose.

The bond ordinance will be presented at the next meeting of council and, if passed, which is intended, unless some objections from citizens may cause it to be laid over for another reading, it must remain dormant for a month under the initiative and referendum act. Another thirty days will be required to sell the bonds and then bids will have to be advertised for so that it will be fully October 1st before any contract can be let and active work started.

Express Citizens To Express Themselves

Osborn and Wilson expressed their disappointment because apparently no active interest was shown by citizens in the project for the council lobby was completely deserted. They felt, though, that once the bond ordinance is presented citizens will have something tangible before them and, perhaps, will have the effect of awakening a more active interest. Judging from the way the members expressed themselves individually, council is of one mind, and that is, to get as early a start as possible on the improvement which will form only another connecting link in the city's flood defense, and in no way means that it is to end with the present proposed terminus at Offene.

It was confined to the territory laid out simply because council felt that this was its financial limit for this year unless other important improvements, such as the proposed new hill-top sewage system were to suffer, and besides it is about all that could be finished this year.

Mr. Schumaker at first thought the $86,000 that it will cost to build the cross wall out Offene street to the rear of the Rottinghaus garage might better be applied to extending the wall on high ground east from Offene along the ridge, but finally concurred in the views of the others that the territory ought to be broken and that the cross wall will serve as an added protection to the city defenses in the event of breaks in the wall that will in the future crown the ridge eastward to Funk's Gut.

Want Contractors To Submit Own Plans

Mr. Osborn raised the point of bidders, while being required to bid on the plans of the city engineer, having the alternative of submitting plans of their own. He was assured by both City Solicitor Stanley McCall and City Engineer George S. Wilhelm that this would be agreeable.

The greater part of the meeting was devoted to an informal inspection of plans and discussion of the proposed improvement. It was the consensus of opinion that it would be useless to stop with the improvement at Offene street and that the city must eventually extend the wall across Funk's Gut and over the golf grounds and connect with the natural defenses formed by the N. & W. tracks.

Later To Extend To Funk's Gut

Engineer Wilhelm ventured the opinion that this would entail a total expenditure of $90,000. The wall would then be two miles long. Along the ridge east from Offene the wall would only be an average of 5 ft. high and not near as much material would be required. The worst problem would be that of crossing Funk's Gut, but he thought it could be done satisfactorily. He said the city was at present burdened with all of the water from New Boston, but thought the plan of the N. & W. to divert its 8 ft. sewer directly into the Ohio would bring desired relief, particularly in the vicinity of Marmon street. A valve gate at Mun's Run, he said, would also prove a big thing and would be the means of protecting much territory usually flooded from that source, even the new Idlewild addition.

The subject of the strength of the wall was also given much attention. Some thought the wall proper west of Chillicothe street was reinforced unnecessarily strong, and cited instances of big boats ramming it without the slightest effect on the wall, but suffering damage to themselves. Others felt it better to play safe and have a wall a little stronger than too weak. Mayor Adam Frick also suggested that the engineer measure the distance from the new wall line to the Kentucky side and determine whether the clearance of the river was the same as at Market street. Engineer Wilhelm thought it was.

Thinks Foundation Will Be Good

In answer to a query from President W. E. Cook, Mr. Wilhelm expressed the opinion that no quicksand would be found anywhere along the proposed route and said he had found solid clay underneath the garbage dump west of Union street. He said the wall would be materially strengthened at some points because of the absence of a back fill to reduce the pressure against it.

No Final Opinion On Patent Infringement

Solicitor McCall was not prepared to give final opinion on the claim of Frank A. Bone, of the city, infringing upon his patent in the design of the wall. The head of the wall is imbedded firmly so that the top of the wall will not keel over from pressure. The solicitor thought the contractors might assume the responsibility of assuming royalties. The judgments that Mr. Bone had won in other cities represented ten per cent of the amount of work. He said he had sent for a copy of the patent papers and would render his opinion at the next meeting.

The solicitor suggested as the first step necessary was the matter of issuing bonds, and after these are sold approval of plans and authorizing the service director to advertise for bids and award the contract.

Mr. Gulker, with a view to putting the matter in some definite shape, moved to refer it to the finance committee to provide funds, but Mr. Osborn insisted that now was the time to determine the amount of funds necessary and order the solicitor to prepare the legislation. Mr. Gulker withdrew his motion and Mr. Osborn's motion ordering a $70,000 bond issue prepared was substituted and carried.

Cost Estimated At $85,500

Clerk Gableman read the following estimate:

Portsmouth, O., July 13, 1915.

Mr. Wm. Gergens, Director of Service, City.

Dear Sir:—In the matter of the Flood Wall, I herewith submit you a revised estimate of the cost of same, based upon the route as directed by the Street Committee of Council, this to supercede the estimate made March 4, 1915, the amount of which was $60,000.00. From Front and Chillicothe streets, south on Chillicothe street to near south side of Mill street, east on Mill street to Union street, south on Union street to Wheeling street, east on Wheeling street to east side of Offene street, north on Offene street to alley between Second and Third streets. The estimate calls for heavier buttresses from half-way between Bond and Waller streets to Union street, and along Wheeling street to Offene street, on account of the wall being so high.

Estimate

10100 cu. yds. excavation at 45 cents	$ 4,545.00
7126 cu. yds. re-enforced concrete, at $5.00	35,630.00
40 pes. Pine S. 4 S. 5" X 22" B. M. at $15.00	198.00
Pump House	1,000.00
Boiler set in place	1,000.00
2 Pumps, set in place, at $750.00	1,500.00
Valve in 4" D. R. Brick Sewer, set, at $350.00	350.00
Manholes in Sewer at North Waller Street:
Bond Street	175.00
Sinton Street, 3 at $55.00	165.00
Pump House	100.00
Chillicothe St.	100.00
Tunnel and Manhole to Pump House from Sewer	195.00
Incidentals	529.00
Total	$85,500.00

Respectfully submitted,
GEO. S. WILHELM,
City Engineer.

Provisions For Openings Will Be Made Later

The subject of openings in the wall was left for future consideration, though Engineer Wilhelm's plan provided for five. He thought one should be located with drive ways at Chillicothe street because of probable future ferry service at that point. The others at Bond, Union, Offene and Jackson streets would be mere square openings such as the one at the present wall terminus, corner of Front and Chillicothe streets.

The mayor, who took an active part in the proceedings, expressed his warm appreciation over the action taken in ordering a bond issue and because it displayed wisdom in limiting the project to what the city was able to bear and carry out for flood protection this year, thereby not spending all available money and leaving it possible to carry out the hill-top sewage plans and other important improvements.

The Movies

Special Comedy Feature At The Exhibit Today

Promises of something special in a comedy way which the management of the Exhibit has made is to be fulfilled today. Special attention is being directed to comedies by the Keystone people as they are devoting their efforts to producing one big comedy film a week. As soon as they are placed on the market Manager Law receives a copy of them and thus local patrons are enabled to see first run pictures. With the recognized greatest moving picture director in the world, Keystone comedies are the peers. It was the Keystone people who developed Charlie Chaplin. But they have a better comedian which they are introducing to the public. His name is Chester Conklin. His first big work in the special features will be shown at the Exhibit tonight. The picture is "The Cannon Ball." This comedy is a screen from start to finish. You start with a smile and end with a roar. Two reels of as high class and refined comedy as one could wish to see. There is a cool house, splendid music and inviting pictures all waiting for you at the Exhibit for the price of five cents.

BOOM! BIG GUNS OF REPUBLICAN COHORTS ARE GETTING INTO ACTION; RIVAL FACTIONS HOLD MEETINGS

Supporters of Charles McCormick for the Republican nomination for mayor are jubilant over the success of their initial meeting at the office of County Clerk McElhenny Tuesday evening, it being claimed that one hundred and fifty or more voters were present. Before the meeting ended, a permanent organization had been formed, and preliminary plans perfected for a systematic anti-primary campaign.

A speech by Hon. Henry T. Bannan, in which he came out openly for McCormick, featured the meeting. Mr. Bannan called attention to the fact that there was a strong organization to combat, and that the fight could be won only by systematic effort. He urged all present to get solidly behind McCormick, whom he lauded to the skies as a candidate. With Mr. Bannan in the open for McCormick, it can be said that the strength of the Willis administration is back of him.

Roy McElhenny was named as chairman of the meeting and Harry Gillen secretary. A permanent campaign committee, consisting of Don Clark, Warren Kiddleberger, Joseph Craigmiles, Walter Bittner, Emerson Kugelman, Dr. E. T. Perry, Charles Knapp, Roy McElhenny and H. T. Bannan was named. Members of this committee will appoint sub-committees in the different wards and precincts to look after the voters in the respective districts.

Before the meeting adjourned Charles McCormick, in a neat speech, thanked his supporters, for the interest they were taking in his candidacy, and assured them of his heartfelt appreciation. He pledged himself, if nominated and elected mayor, to a full performance of the duties of that high office.

At the same time, leaders of the anti-McCormick faction, who include the remnant of the old organization, were holding a meeting in Charles Hard's office in the Masonic Temple. None of the candidates attended, the object of the meeting being to bring about the withdrawal of two of three candidates, Osborn, Kaps or Gims. According to one who was there, no apparent headway was made in that direction, but the leaders haven't given up hope yet, that one or the other will withdraw before the day of the primary, so that there can be a regular, old knock-down and drag-out fight with the Hamon crowd, as the McCormick supporters are called by the other fellows. It is said the Osborn-Kaps-Gims followers fear they may destroy each other and McCormick walk away with the prize.

Start Work On Sewer Job

Contractor Miller began installing the first section of concrete forms Wednesday for the old Sixth ward sewer extension. He has been delayed on the job three weeks for want of reinforcement material, but has the bottom completed.

Attend Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Upp left for Cleveland Tuesday to attend the funeral of a sister-in-law, Mrs. J. B. Pratt, who died in that city Sunday.

AUSTRALIAN PRIZE BRAVES WAR DIVERS

With dimmed lights by night and crew sweeping the waters with anxious eyes by day, the British steamer Booral, Captain J. Averis, is in port at San Francisco from Australia, after successfully running the submarine blockade. The Booral was the German steamer Oberhausen before the British seized her.

SELBY COMPANY SHIPS SHOES FOR MEXICANS

The Selby Shoe company Tuesday shipped $20,000 worth of shoes to a dealer in Vera Cruz, Mexico, that represented orders from all of its customers in that country before the last revolution broke out.

The orders have been held up at the plant for sometime past and the company saw a chance to clean up with them by disposing of the entire shipment to one dealer. The shipment was made via New York City.

BABE QUENCHES THIRST BY DRINKING IODINE

Raymond, a 2-year-old baby son of Samuel Flood, a brick-yard laborer, 1015 Eleventh street, picked up a bottle of iodine from off a table stand and drank a half ounce of the poisonous fluid Tuesday afternoon and came near dying as a result.

The prompt act of the mother, who, as soon as the baby's little sister told her what he had done, rushed into B. E. Allen's grocery nearby, grabbed up a bottle of sweet milk, and administered the antidote, and probably saved the tot's life.

City Physician Dr. Charles Wendelken responded to a hurry call and succeeded in bringing the child out of danger.

C. & O. Engineer Kicks Sandbox, Has His Right Foot Ground Off

Shelden Hanks, a well known C. & O. engineer, suffered the loss of his right foot in a singular manner in the C. & O. yards at Russell, Ky.

When something went wrong with the sand box of his engine, which was not feeding properly, it is claimed Hanks kicked it with his right foot and in so doing his foot was deflected and went under the wheel and was ground off. Hanks was removed to the C. & O. hospital in Huntington, where his foot was amputated.

Theater Closed

Donald Maguet, formerly employed at the Selby Shoe Co., but who recently resigned to accept a position of manager of a moving picture show near Milwaukee, has returned home, reporting that business was on the wane to such an extent that the owner decided to close his theater until times became better. Mr. Maguet has two offers under consideration, but will probably rest up for a couple of weeks before accepting one of them.

To Lower Walks

Some Highland avenue property owners have asked the city engineer for stakes preparatory to reducing their walks to a proper grade.

Refuses to Pay

James Goodpaster, a North End grocer, complains to the police that the boy who deliberately broke a window at his store some weeks ago, has not made good the damage as ordered by the court and instead is said to have made threats to repeat his act. Chief McCarty will investigate.

Must Renew Licenses

Police officers were detailed Tuesday to make the rounds of pool rooms and notify owners to renew their licenses.

Foals Colt

Wild Cat, the fine sorrel racing mare owned by Dr. P. P. Pieper, veterinary surgeon, foaled a fine colt Tuesday morning. It was sired by Barnum Rose.

Lost and Found

George Sachs, a drayman, lost his pocket book containing $13 at the B. & O. S. W. depot Tuesday morning, but recovered it some hours later.

WILL CONFER OVER WATERWORKS PUMPS

Word was received by W. W. Watson, resident engineer of the J. R. Witmer company, Wednesday, that Mr. Witmer will arrive here in a day or two to confer with the McGowan company's representatives relative to some changes that are being considered in the pumping equipment of the new water works. These must meet Mr. Witmer's approval before they are acceptable to the city. Mr. Witmer has been in Colorado biding on a big engineering job and while there had the misfortune to sprain an ankle in a fall. He was forced to travel horseback for a distance of 40 miles.

PAY CHECKS TOMORROW

Pay checks of N. & W. employees will reach the city on Monday morning, word to this effect being received at division headquarters in East Portsmouth today.

To Arrive At Noon

Judge Tarbell, of Georgetown, sent word early Wednesday morning to Clerk McElhenny that he would not arrive in Portsmouth until noon Wednesday, so that the plumbers' injunction hearing, scheduled for this morning at 9 o'clock, has been continued until one o'clock this afternoon.

Grand Jury Will Look Into Killing

No action will be taken in the New Boston shooting affray of last Saturday night until after the grand jury, now in session, has made its report, it was stated by Mayor Samuel Davis of New Boston, Wednesday morning.

The case was the subject of the investigation by the grand jury Tuesday afternoon, and the New Boston authorities have decided to leave the matter to the county authorities. In the meantime, William Tamme, the survivor of the duel, is theoretically under arrest while laid up at his home with three bullet wounds.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Minnie Hall Bramblett

Mrs. Minnie Hall Bramblett, aged 35 years, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Charles A. Spratt, of No. 414 Third street, died at her home in Liberty, Ky., Tuesday night after a lingering illness with tuberculosis.

Mrs. Bramblett leaves her husband, William Bramblett, a well known farmer, and a foster son, Sella, aged 5 years, whom she adopted after the death of her sister, Mrs. Anna Hall, mother of the boy, three years ago. Burial will take place at Mount Zion cemetery, Thursday.

Earl Ferguson

Earl, the sixteen-months-old baby son of John T. Ferguson, an N. & W. fireman, of No. 2023 Galatin street, died Tuesday evening of cholera infantum. The child had been sick only since Friday. Besides the heart broken parents he leaves a sister, Ethel, aged four years, and two brothers, Herbert, aged 8 years and Frankie, aged 6 years. The remains will be taken to Fort Gay, W. Va., this evening for burial.

Will Picnic

The Junior department of the Grandview Christian church will picnic Saturday afternoon at Millbrook park. All members are requested to meet at the church at one o'clock with well filled baskets, preparatory to taking the street cars for the park.

Had Good Haul

Y. S. KAI OF CHINA MAY BLOW JOB!

Mr. Yuen Shi Kai, well known throughout China as chief executive or president, has recently expressed annoyance at a rumor that has persisted within the dotted lines of his domain.

Mr. Kai has shown a determination to take on after the manner of Jules Caesar, late of Rome, should a crown be offered him. Thrice may they offer him a kingly crown upon the Van-tse Kinn and thrice will he refuse it.

It seems to be thought in China that Mr. Kai aspires to the splendor of a scepter and a throne. And some have even been so bold as to say that he plans to wear a new narrow-brimmed crown.
